

Right Drugs Right Service Right Prices

THE THREE IMPORTANT LINKS
IN THE CHAIN OF CONFIDENCE

QUALITY

Right Drugs means more than purity—it also means potency. We buy only drugs of standard strength and keep them in a way which insures against deterioration. Put us to the Quality Test.

SERVICE

Drug stores have character just the same as people. We want you to visit our store and judge it by the conveniences and service which are provided to safeguard the interests of our customers. Our rapidly increasing trade proves that our methods are appreciated.

PRICES

Careful and extensive buying enables us to furnish the highest grade of goods at prices lower than you often pay for inferior goods elsewhere. However, we never sacrifice purity for price.

We are in a position to promote your best interests in every way and we wish to add you to our list of loyal satisfied customers.

Society News

Few fraternal-society events in La Grande have equalled that which Hope Chapter No. 13 Wednesday evening carried out as a very fitting compliment to Dora B. Schilke, recently elected worthy grand matron of the Oregon Eastern Star, and to Worthy Matron Ellen Kiddle, appointed grand Electa. The meeting was signalized by the presence of Associate Grand Conductress Mrs. McMurray of Eugene and of several past matrons of various chapters, notably Mrs. Corey of Dodge City, Kan., Mrs. Langrell of Baker, Miss Campbell of Maryville, Kan., and others. Each of these visiting officials and past officials were heard in brief speeches during the intensely pretty program carried out early in the evening.

One of the features of the evening, and a decided treat, was the evolution of the now famous drill team which seven years ago went to Portland to the grand lodge and under the guidance of Mrs. Schilke took that lodge "ing storm." These same women were out in old-time form on this occasion with Mrs. A. B. Cherry leading in the new movement. While the intricate drills were carried out a climax was enacted, each member presenting a rose to the honor guest, until she was well buried under roses, Miss Naomi Williamson the meanwhile reading an appropriate poem. Each bouquet was tastefully arranged by Mrs. A. B. Cherry.

Expressing the appreciation of the high honors and distinction won by Mrs. Schilke, Hope Chapter had, through a committee consisting of Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Silverthorn and Mrs. Jackson, selected an expensive lavalier as a token of confidence and this was presented to Mrs. Schilke in a well-worded speech by Mrs. Kiddle. Mrs. Schilke responded to the gift with a brief speech. C. D. Huffman also presented a splendid bouquet of red sweet peas to Mrs. Kiddle and Mrs. Schilke presented a bouquet of sweet peas to Mrs. McMurray. Then various distinguished visitors were called upon.

The lodge room was a place beautiful with Shasta daisies, roses and other mediums of decoration, carrying out as a color scheme the color of the five points of the star. The decorations were extremely attractive and were arranged by Mesdames Florence Bacon, Turner Oliver, C. W. Noyes, Vincent Palmer and J. K. Wright.

When the delightful formal program was over, the serving committee with Mrs. Lou Givens and Mrs. L. M.

Boyd at its head, called the guests numbering about 150 to the banquet room where light refreshments were served from plates at which were individual flower favors.

The occasion was a pretty compliment to the homecoming of the grand worthy matron and exemplified in one form the high esteem the supreme head of Eastern Stardom in Oregon is held in her own chapter. Letters of congratulation were read from friends afar off, including one from E. E. Kiddle who happened to be in St. Louis that night.

At a meeting of the officers of the Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri association Thursday evening preparations for the third annual picnic were started. The committee appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws made their report and the organization will this year be established on a permanent basis, with the regular yearly picnic occurring at Riverside park on the first Sunday in September, which this year comes on the third.

There has been some confusion heretofore as regards membership, so a section of the by-laws has been framed to cover this point and reads as follows: "Membership shall be granted to families wherein either the husband or wife came to Oregon from Kansas, Oklahoma or Missouri, who had resided in either of these states for a period of six months before removal to Oregon, or others who were born in these states."

The expenses this year will be met in the past two years, by a membership fee of 50 cents for each family, which fee will go to provide extras in the way of treats, music, etc.

Those sending in their dues must state how many of the family will attend and it is urged that they do not wait to register and pay their dues on the day of the picnic, as many did last year, as the extras provided this year will be governed according to the number of tickets issued. Notices of the event with a synopsis of the program, will be mailed in due time to those registering last year, but those desiring to become members and attend the picnic do not need to await this notice, but can sign the roll and get tickets at any time by calling at the office of the secretary, C. N. Palmer, in the West-Jacobson Bldg.

Read the section of the association governing membership and if you are not already enrolled do not hesitate to join, as past meetings have demonstrated that the right or privilege to attend these annual picnics is one that carries with it much pleasure and profit.

Cove, Oregon, July 13.—The entertainment Wednesday evening given by Mrs. Joycelyn Roberts was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Between the first and second parts of the program the Cherry fair directors took the platform and the chairman, A. A. Anties, announced that votes for nominees for the King and Queen would be in order.

A half hour or more was spent in this way. The tallies for nominees stand as follows:

King—Roy Bell, 425, Warner Knutzen, 418.

Queen—Dorothy Bloom, 4760, Dilly Gray, 4731, Mary Carter 4725.

Mr. Anties then announced that the Cherry boosters would make their trip around the valley Monday, July 17, leaving Cove at 7 o'clock a. m. and returning intine to hold another open meeting for the purpose of casting more votes for King Bing and Queen Ann.

This will close the contest. The entire program for the day will be printed later.

At the First Baptist church in La Grande, Sunday, July 9th, Milford H. Jennison was married to Miss Clarice Fine, Pastor J. J. Tickner, B. D., officiating. The bride is a sister of Mrs. C. W. Chandler and a popular young lady of Elgin; a graduate of the Elgin High school and has been teaching there for the past year. Mr. Jennison is a resident of La Grande, a brother of Mrs. W. G. Spencer and has been in the employ of the Palmer Lumber company for the past seven years. The young couple left on No. 18 Sunday evening for Minneapolis.
