E. J. Burke and Clark E. Nelson will motor to Lewiston tomorrow on a combined fishing and business trip. The men will motor from Lewiston to Wallowa Lake and expect to attend the motorcycle races in La Grande Sunday.—Pendleton E. O.

More than 50 Pendleton boosters signed yesterday with the committee to join the special train for La Grande Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. By tonight or tomorrow it is expected the required number of 100 will be obtained. The women are exhibiting as much interest in the trip as the men and a large number will be at the "Speed 'em Up" races to lend their voices to the occasion.

For the round trip a special rate of $3.75 has been obtained. Those who wish to sign up can do so at the Tallman drug store. The Round-Up band has definitely decided to make the trip.—Pendleton E. O.

Theodore R. "Teddy" Roosevelt, former president of the United States and one of the leading national figures, is contemplating a trip to Pendleton to visit the 1916 Round-Up. Colonel Roosevelt has frequently expressed a desire to see the Round-Up and when last in Oregon inquired with a characteristic display of interest about the big show. With Secretary McAdoo, Colonel Roosevelt and other notables, Pendleton is assured of having gathered at the 1916 show the greatest number of persons of international reputation ever assembled here. The Round-Up will make special plans to entertain the distinguished guests. There is a report that Secretary McAdoo may be accompanied here by President Wilson as it is known he is being urged strenuously to journey to California, Oregon and Washington.—Pendleton E. O.

Honey Made in Loft. Honey directly over his dining room table, to which he contemplates building connecting pipes from the beehive in the loft, is the treat J. M. Hills enjoys these days. A swarm of honey bees found their way through a knot-hole in the gable of his home and forthwith began to make honey in the loft. Mr. Hills says the owners can have the swarm without identification.
