President's Summer Capital May Be Lucky For Him

Long Beach, N. J., July 20.—President Wilson will arrive here soon to occupy the summer capital, "Shadow Lawn," and receive formal notification of his nomination. His sojourn in this heretofore unlucky mansion should be lucky if his lucky number is still working, for this is the thirteenth year since the magnificent place built by the late John A. McCall of the New York Life Insurance company, in 1903, was opened.

Only misfortune followed the three persons who have previously lived here.

McCall, who spared no expense and who is credited with having spent a million dollars on "Shadow Lawn" and its sixty-five acres of ground, beautified with over fifty thousand dollars worth of shrubbery and trees, and containing an artificial lake and a fifty thousand dollar stable and garage, spent only one season in the big white building on the hill before troubles came thick upon him.

Joseph White, the Texas postage-stamp millionaire, who founded his fortune on a bid for bonds in the second Cleveland administration, made it his home for several years before his financial collapse.

J. B. Greenhut, the New York merchant prince, who next purchased it, last year became a bankrupt. But the superstitious say the rule of three having been followed to the end, the hoodoo now is broken. Besides, "13" is President Wilson's lucky number, he says.

The hopes of Long Beach and its wealthy summer colony have long centered in the place being the Summer White House. It has been regarded as almost too pretentious and dignified for a mere private residence.

Shadow Lawn today is a Mecca for motorists, and is visited by hundreds of sight-seers daily. From the upper stories may be seen the summer homes of Presidents Grant and Garfield on the ocean, less than a mile away. An idea of the size of the building may be gained from the fact that twenty-five telephones have been installed for the convenience of the President's household.

Last fall former Senator Jones Smith, Jr., made the suggestion that it was ideally located for the President's headquarters in a national campaign.

Credit for bringing the summer White House to Long Beach is particularly due to these New Jerseyites: B. B. Robbitt, State auditor and editor of the Long Beach Record; Dr. George H. Baker, Richard H. Deeves, Myron T. Oppenheim, Dr. Joseph T. Welch, Senator John W. Slocum, Editor Jas. Kearny, of the Trenton Times, Representatives Thomas J. Scully, Appeals Court Judge Henry S. Terhune, Senator Henry E. Ackerson, Jr., Public Utility Commissioner, J. Lyle Kimmonth, editor of the Asbury Park Press, and Charles F. McDonald.

Constipation and Indigestion.

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Wilmington, N. C. Chamberlain's Tablets are mild and gentle in their action. Give them a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the agreeable laxative effect which they produce. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

War Oddities

Rome—Apparently the Italians are being weaned slowly from the grape to the hop. Beer constantly becomes more and more popular in Italy.

Taking Big Chances.

It is a great risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. Attacks of bowel complaint are often sudden and very severe, and everyone should go prepared for them. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Prayers Modified.

London, June 26. (By mail).—A British army chaplain returned from France today told of stopping at a wayside shrine in Flanders, where Belgian soldiers, kneeling in prayer, were following the chant of their priest until the father started the Paternoster. At the words: "As we forgive those who trespass against us," there was silence. Not a man replied.

The priest hesitated and started again. Suddenly a steady voice rang out from the back, clearly intoning the words that pledge one to forgive his enemies. It was the voice of Albert, King of the Belgians. His soldiers then repeated after him, word for word.

Submarine Venture Worries British.

Baltimore, Md., July 21.—The giant U-Boat Deutschland, which made history by cruising from Germany to this port with a $700,000 cargo of merchandise, is scheduled to start back to Germany today with a cargo of badly needed supplies for the Fatherland. If, as the promoters of the commercial company that built the Deutschland claim, this is only the beginning of undersea commerce between the tow countries, the British blockade has not only been permanently pierced, but Great Britain faces a crisis in her commercial export trade, according to what is being said and done in London. Some time before the Deutschland arrived at this port, the merchants and manufactures of England were frightened by the seemingly authentic report that Germany had stored up $1,800,000,000, or nearly two billion dollars worth of goods ready to dump on the markets of the world after the war. The Britishers organized at once the Association of Trade Protective societies, with 50,000 members and adopted a resolution urging the government to help head off the flood of German goods through the establishment and operation of a Ministry of Commerce. Should the undersea commerce venture of Germany, while the war still is in progress, prove practical on a big scale, England will be powerless to crush the Teutonic commercial competition and will, it is believed, face a serious situation in dealing with her world markets, particularly after the war and somewhat immediately.

Chicago King of Chance Betting.

Chicago, Ill., July 21.—Jimmy O'Leary, Chicago's king of chance, has changed his odds on the coming presidential election "because of the war," as he put it, to "even money on Wilson and Lugard; take your choice."

Up to the latest Mexican crisis Hughes ruled a 5 to 6 favorite, while Wilson was quoted 4 to 5.

O'Leary claims Wilson's strength has increased recently.

QUALITY At a Price

Rather than attempt comparison in the mind, place the goods side by side. It is the only safe way, for whenever unreasonably low prices are given by skimping quality, the user must certainly lose in the end. The quality of Hub sample merchandise has such a well known high standard, that emphasizing the fact is not necessary. Yet we want you to carry the truth in mind when reading of our remarkable values.
