SHERRY'S

Last Day of Theda Bara at Sherry's

Little Kittens Reichert, who acts a charming juvenile part in "The Eternal Sappho," starring Theda Bara, has quite an important role in this latest William Fox photodrama. On her influence over Laura Gubbins, a part taken by Miss Bara, hangs a main turning point of the story, and the child proves that she can act a difficult part more cleverly than many adult players.

Sherry Theatre Special News. Tomorrow royalty makes us a one day visit—Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne crowned king and queen of the silent drama and Charlie Chaplin, the king of comedians. Bushman and Bayne in their very latest, "A Virginia Romance" and Charlie Chaplin in "The Floorwalker," the first of the Mutual-Chaplin specials. Patrons of Sherry's will have a rare treat on Saturday. Prices as usual.

Look Good—Feel Good. No one can either feel good nor look good while suffering from constipation. Get rid of that tired, draggy, lifeless feeling by a treatment of Dr. King's New Life Pills. Buy a box today, take one or two pills tonight. In the morning that stuffed, dull feeling is gone and you feel better at once. 25c at your druggist.—Adv.

United Press Boy Cited for Bravery. Paris, July 1.—(By mail)—Every United Press office boy in America, and all the other office boys as far as that's concerned, will be glad to know that Jean Villier, an office boy in the Paris office of the United Press, has been cited in the order of the day several times for conspicuous bravery in the French trenches. Villier is now nineteen and has been at the French front for a year and a half. A year ago he received his first citation and was given for recompense the choice between the decoration of the Croix de Guerre or six days leave at Paris. He disdainfully rejected the former and took the latter. The joy of being back in Paris proved too much for Jean and he overstayed his leave and was taken before his commanding general and for punishment ordered to the front line trenches. It so happens that after Paris there is no place in the world that Jean loves more dearly than the front line trenches. It is the only place at the front where a man has a chance to perform those conspicuous deeds of bravery that win him citations with their accompanying war crosses—or trips to Paris. It took Jean but a little time to put two and two together and work out his system. Since then Jean has been cited to the order of the day four different times. Each time he has taken his six days leave at Paris instead of the War cross. Each time at Paris he has overstayed his leave two days, and each time upon his return to the front he has been ordered to the front line trenches. Jean thinks his system beats anything that anybody ever worked out for Monte Carlo or anywhere else.

Movie Press Agency: Fourteen supernumeraries in the sensational production, "Influenza," caught the German measles and the film was badly spotted.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
