Card of Thanks.
I wish to sincerely thank all neighbors and friends, including those who accompanied me to The Dalles; also those who sent such beautiful floral remembrances; and the O.-W. officials who acted as pall bearers in performing the last sad rites over the remains of my beloved husband, A. Floyd. MRS. A. FLOYD.—Adv. 7-26-1tp.

Man Who Died on Operating Table Is Alive
London, July 1.—(By mail)—Lance Corporal Mayes, Queen's Westminster Regiment, lives today to be able to say that he died.
A German shell clipped off part of Mayes' right arm at Ypres last Christmas. Eventually he landed in a London hospital with a stump of an arm that threatened blood poison. An operation became necessary.
Under an anaesthetic the soldier's heart collapsed and ceased to beat. The patient was dead. The surgeon in charge tried a quick experiment. He made an incision large enough to admit his hand in Mayes' side. He lifted the diaphragm, reached the heart and gently massaged the organ with his fingers. The heart responded and resumed pulsations.
Mayes is now on the road to complete recovery. In another month he will be wearing an artificial arm and learning to use it in a trade which he will be taught by the government.
