Ernest P. Ferney and Miss Ella M. Nelson were quietly married Sunday afternoon in St. Peter's church by the Rev. U. H. Gibbs. The bride's brother, Calvin Nelson, and her cousin, Miss Ella Milligan, of Salt Lake, stood up with them. The bride is a daughter of Chris Nelson and the groom is a rancher of Baker county. The young couple left on the evening train for their future home which will be on a ranch a few miles east of Baker.

An auto load, including principally members of Henry Young's family, went to Catherine creek Sunday to investigate reports of the big run of salmon. While they were rewarded with a six-pound fish the report is brought that the creek was lined with salmon hunters, principally in autos, and the supply of salmon large as it is supposed to be, is not more than enough to go round.

PAINTING STILL EXHIBITED.

Tomorrow Evening Will Be Last Time to See the Great Picture.

The entire Pacific coast will soon feel the influence of the wave of prosperity that is sweeping over the country from the East but the land of opportunity today is California, especially the region around San Francisco bay. Never before have the great industries of the United States shown such united effort to find a location as they do at the present time in Oakland, California. Hundreds of factories employing thousands of mechanics have already located there and many more are coming, some of the largest in the United States.

An immense oil painting of the entire city of Oakland and surrounding cities is on exhibition in the store room adjoining Levy-Vogel Drug company on Depot street. This great painting can be seen until Tuesday evening. This is the last opportunity for the people of La Grande and Union county to see the largest commercial painting ever produced as well as a splendid work of art. Descriptive talks will be given afternoon and evening on the painting and everybody is invited. Thousands have already seen it and you should not miss this opportunity.
