Henry Arthur Jones' Great Play, "Saints and Sinners," Introduces Peggy Hyland

Are you a sinner? You needn't necessarily be a deep-dyed, devoted pupil of Satan to deserve this appellation. You need only be a weakling with no thought of actual sin other than an irresistible impulse toward self-gratification to be registered under this head by Henry Arthur Jones. This distinguished English dramatist, who has made the world think by force of his graphic, dramatic lessons, made this absorbing question the theme of what is conceded to be one of his foremost successes, "Saints and Sinners," which after a triumphant career on the stages of England and America, has now been converted to the screen by the Famous Players Film Co. on the Paramount program.

Miss Peggy Hyland, the favorite of the English stage, who has lately arrived from England to appear in Famous Players' productions, and who makes her premier American appearance in this subject, went to Florida, where the exteriors of this drama were filmed under the direction of Jas. Kirkwood. This well-known masterpiece, embossed by beautiful scenery and superb acting, will appear at the Arcade tonight.

The role of Letty is visualized by Miss Hyland, who by her unusual beauty and talent portrays the little country girl with wonderful charm. George Kingsmill, a young framer, in love with Letty, the only child of Rev. Fletcher, is refused her hand because of her love for Captain Fanshawe. The Minister, aware of the Captain's reputation, forbids her to see him again. She complies with her father's wishes until the day of the annual church picnic, when Fanshawe summons her to bid farewell as he is going to leave the little town of Steepleford forever. He persuades her to accept his invitation for a short row on the river. It finally becomes too late for her to go home unaccom...ed, Fanshawe offers to take her ... train. ...for tomorrow at this ...e will be something of ... James J. Corbett, one time ...pion pugilist of the world, assisted by favorite Claire Whitney, will be seen in "The Burglar and the Lady," a melodrama of worth. It is claimed that "Jim" is quite as successful as an actor as he was as a prize fighter and that those who view this picture will receive plenty of thrills and be highly entertained. Don't forget that "The Burglar and the Lady" will be here for one day only—tomorrow.

Bathing Venus Arrested

Connelsville, Pa., July 25.—Emulating the diving Venus girls with a carnival company here,, Leona Franks, who some weeks ago figured in the news as the result of boarding a freight train and beating a ride to McKeesport, entertained a crowd with an impromptu performance along the Lough River. Mary Pickle and Katherine Smith, both less than 17, were co-stars.

Spectators say the performance was clever, but when Leona, carried away with the applause, discarded her bathing suit, the police interfered.

Redmen Name New Head.

Seattle, Wash., July 31.—Hugh Herren, Puyallup, was advanced from the office of great senior sagamore to that of great sachem of the great council of Washington, Improved Order of Red Men, at the 19th great council session. Mr. Herron succeeds John McKee, of Everett, who was made great prophet. Other officers elected are:

Great senior sagamore, C. R. Jensen, Seattle; great junior sagamore, J. W. Scott, Port Townsend; great chief of records, L. A. Drinkwine, Tacoma; great keeper of wampum, L. H. Wolff, Spokane. Drinkwine and Wolff were re-elected.

E. O. Connor of Spokane and Harry Hudson, of Bremerton, were chosen great representatives to the great council of the United States, and the council voted to support Mr. Connor for the office of great junior sagamore of the United States.

John Smythe, of Spokane, was appointed great sannap; Henry Bloom, of Seattle, great mashinewa; R. Canty, of Eastonville, great guard of the wigwam, and George H. Farrah of Vancouver, Wash., great guard of the forest.

The next session of the Red Men and the auxilliary, Degree of Pocahontas, will be held in Everett.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
