PERSONAL MENTION

The Adolph Newlin family are in summer camp for a few days at Starkey.

Mrs. J. T. Williamson has returned from the Williamson ranch at Look-out Mountain.

"Doc" Robinson, night clerk at the Sommer hotel, has returned from a week's sojourn in Portland.

W. B. Hindman, one of the first of the first in the Elgin section, is on a business visit in La Grande today.

Arnold Duckett, who has been employed in the railroad machine shops at Sacramento, has returned to La Grande.

Ernest Vehrs motorcycled to Fly creek yesterday and spent the day with other La Grander who journeyed thitherward.

Mrs. Pearl Baker and Mrs. Lena Roe, of Payette, Idaho, are visitors in La Grande and are the guests of Mrs. Ethel Roe, of South La Grande.

Miss Hazel Young has returned from a visit in Walla Walla where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones, former La Grande residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuter who were in Portland last week while Mr. Reuter was playing in the Union-Wallowa K. of P. band, returned yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Blood and Mrs. E. P. Day will leave tomorrow for Yellowstone park where they will remain for about three weeks taking in the sights of that region.

Chase Bohnenkamp, Tracey Hollister and Charles Roberts left Saturday afternoon for a long motorcycle-fishing trip having the John Day country in view as destination. They are due back today.

J. W. Bush is over from his Cove ranch for a day. He brings the report that the cherry harvesting has been finished. All other crops show up fine and everybody is elated over the prospects.

A. Loney arrived from Portland today and will take a place in the Elks' band and orchestra, his special instrument being the cornet. The band is being steadily recruited by the addition of the best musical talent obtainable.

Prof. Arant, superintendent of Union schools, was a visitor in the city this morning on business matters. He has been enjoying a short vacation but is called back to his desk early on account of numerous matters incidental to reopening of schools.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. McMillan and daughter Anna Jane left yesterday for a short visit with relatives in Portland. Dr. McMillan expects to be out of his office for two weeks or more while Mrs. McMillan and daughter will remain through the balance of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. James O'Hare went to the Wallowa canyon in their side sars Saturday night. Mr. O'Hare met up with some little machine difficulties and didn't get quite as far as anticipated but enjoyed the Sunday in the canyon nevertheless.

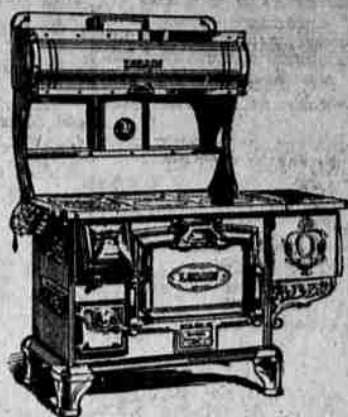

Dr. Wilson of Elgin was a passenger this morning en route home after being in Portland to attend the K. of P. convention. He is one of the last, if not the last, to return from this county, the La Grande delegates, H. P. Oliver and A. C. Williams, having returned previously.

Joe Egan returned this morning from Portland where he was in attendance at a meeting of members of the Egan family from Spokane and other northwestern points. Among other things connected with the event was a trip over a portion of the Columbia highway which Mr. Egan pronounced to be without a rival in the way of variety and grandeur of scenery.

Parkdale School House Improved. L. P. Day has just about completed the re-painting of the school house in the Fruitdale district. Other needed improvements are being made to be in readiness for the opening of the regular nine months of school for the coming school year.

Hospital News.

Florence Tiffany is progressing nicely after an operation. Mrs. C. A. Small is able to be in a wheel chair today after a prolonged and critical illness. Charles Best of Union returned to his home today after treatment at the hospital. Wilda Ellis of Enterprise is improving splendidly. Nancy Kofford of Union expects to leave the hospital in a few days. Laura Nuzroll of Joseph plans to return to her home the middle of the week; after treatment here. Beach Wadfell of Cove is somewhat critically ill.

Crab Rates Equalized.

Elimination of the discrimination by Wells Fargo & Co. in favor of Washington cities over Newport, Oregon, in rates on crab shipments to Portland from these points were ordered by the Oregon Public Service commission. The order was issued after an inquiry made upon complaint of a Portland dealer.

Mystery House Is Built.

John D. Coleman of Portland has built a $25,000 house to contain a $11,000 pipe organ and did it as a surprise to his wife and all others who knew him. It is situated in Irvington and came as an inspiration to him after attending the concerts of the Portland Symphony orchestra.
