Meals and Lunches for Recruits.
United States Army Recruiting

Station, Federal Bldg., La Grande, Oregon, Aug. 9.—Sealed proposals, in triplicate, made out on the form next following, will be received here until 4 o'clock p. m., August 19, 1916, and then opened, for furnishing meals and lunches for the recruiting party, recruits, and applicants for enlistment in the U. S. Army at the above named recruiting station for the period commencing August 20, 1916.

The meals furnished must be substantial and of wholesome quality, in suitable proportions of meat (or fish), bread, vegetables, sugar, coffee, or tea, and the usual seasoning; to be well cooked and satisfactory quantity supplied. In addition to the meals, soap shall be furnished in the proportion of one pound to each 75 meals, and matches at the rate of six boxes per month, without extra charge. The meals and lunches must be neatly served (or furnished), three times daily, in a clean apartment with respectable surroundings, not too remote from the station, at such hours as may be designated by the recruiting officer. Each lunch shall consist of substantial and wholesome food, sufficient for a man's sustenance for one meal, but need not include coffee. When desired for carrying, the lunches shall be put up in neat and compact form, each separately or as desired.

The government reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, and also the right to terminate the agreement that may be made, at any time upon notice from the recruiting officer to the bidder whose proposal is accepted.

For further information relative to the manner of bidding, conditions to be observed, etc., apply to the recruiting officer.
Bidders are invited to be present at the opening of the proposals.
Envelopes containing proposals

should be marked "Proposals for meals and lunches, to be opened August 19, 1916," and addressed to the recruiting officer at the address given above.
CAPTAIN LEE M. CLARK, O. N. G. Recruiting Officer. 8-10-10t

WHERE THE WEST BEGINS.

(Read by Mr. Brewer at Cove Cherry Show.)
Out where the handclasp is a little stronger,
That's where the West begins.
Out where a smile dwells a little longer,
That's where the West begins.
Out where the sun is a little brighter,
Out where the snow is a trifle whiter,
Where the bonds of home are a wee bit tighter,
That's where the West begins.

Out where the sky is a little bluer,
That's where the West begins.
Out where friendship is a little truer,
That's where the West begins.
Out where a fresher breeze is blowing,
Out where every stream with laughter's flowing,
Where there is more of reaping and less of sowing
That's where the West begins.

Out where the world is in the making,
That's where the West begins.
Where pure hearts from despair are aching,
That's where the West begins.
Where there is more laughing and less of sighing,
Where there is more of giving and less of buying,
Where men make friends without half trying,
That's where the West begins.
