Our Coal Creed

WE believe in good coal, in clean coal, in coal that looks good, burns better and heats best of all.

WE believe in a business policy of fair prices, square dealing and liberal treatment of customers, great and small.

WE believe in a discriminating public that knows what it wants and knows where to buy it.

WE believe in ourselves and the goods we sell.

WE believe that we have the most desirable stock of coal to be found in La Grande.

 PERSONAL MENTION ***

County Judge J. F. Phy and R. W. Logan are Pendleton visitors today.

Mrs. Clarence Graves went to Wallowa lake this morning on a brief vacation trip.

John S. Hodgins arrived home on No. 6 after an absence of several days at Boycecan.

Fred Kiddie returned today from a trip to Astoria where he attended the wedding of a former college chum of the U. of O.

A. C. Hampton, principal-elect of the high school has arrived and his family will occupy the residence at Sixth and O streets.

J. A. Mattott was down from Perry yesterday visiting his family and transacting business. Mr. Mattott is employed with a sawmill there.

Miss Johns of Pendleton, for several days a guest with Miss Alice Hill and other friends in La Grande and that always sells at $2.00 and that can only be bought in the "Wirthmor" Stores

The Welworth Blouse,

There's value added to good value in every Welworth Blouse. They are credited everywhere as being the very best Blouse that $2.00 can possibly buy.

Any woman who wants to spend $2.00 or thereabouts for a Blouse—would come here and buy a Welworth if she knew how good they really were. As it is, a great many women do know—and they're coming here repeatedly—more of them every week. They wouldn't go elsewhere, for if they did—they know Blouses of the same character would cost considerably more. We just want you to familiarize yourself with the Welworth; thereafter we're sure you'll buy them.

New Welworth Blouses on Sale TOMORROW SOLD HERE ONLY

Island City, returned to her home this morning.

Engineer John Gardner, former member of the La Grande city commission, arrived from Portland this morning and will remain a day or two looking after business affairs.

Mrs. E. J. Sullivan arrived from Spokane this morning to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hermann. After a visit here Mrs. Sullivan will go to Enterprise where her sister, Mrs. H. T. Rowe, resides.

Dr. E. W. Barnes was in La Grande this morning on his return to his home in North Powder after a visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Affie B. Hanna of Joseph. Mrs. Barnes accompanied the doctor to Wallowa county and remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. A. A. Wenzel and daughter, Dorothy Mae, have gone to Portland where they join Mrs. T. J. Scroggin and daughter, Aladeen, and the party will then proceed to Seaside for a week's outing before returning to La Grande.

Jack Peare, county chairman of the Republican Central committee, was among the attendants at the Chas. E. Hughes reception in Portland. Mr. Peare returned as far as Gibbon this morning and then stopped over for the railroad picnic with the intention of completing the journey homeward tonight.

The Misses Naomi and Lavena Chenault, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Chenault of Freewater, have been visiting relatives in Grande Ronde the past week. Today they went up to North Powder, which was their former home and where they will visit schoolmates and friends a few days.

Senator Ed E. Kiddie came home today after a brief visit in Portland during which time he was an attendant at the Hughes reception. He brings the report that there was an immense crowd in Portland to greet the Republican standard bearer, all parts of the state being represented at the gathering.

Engineer Chas. Griffin, who is in Tacoma, called there on account of an accident which befell his brother, who was injured in Seattle, in an automobile smashup, reports that his brother is on a fair road to recovery. Mr. Griffin will return to La Grande as soon as the injured man is pronounced out of danger.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Johnson and their daughter, Mrs. Ola Peebler and Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Thompson, and Mrs. Louise Landrum left for Wallowa lake by auto this morning. Mr. Johnson will leave the party at the park for a ven-day outing, and will return this evening. Judging from the super-abundance of guns, ammunition, fishing tackle, etc., in evidence, this quartet of ladies will make a new Isaac Walton record.
