Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. SHEPHERD FINDS NEUTRAL BODY

MILITIAMEN AT BORDER COSMOPOLITAN. Middlewestern Neutrality Explained When Once Studied.

Mercedes, Texas, Aug. 15.—(By Mail)—The Middle West. There's a name that sticks in the craw of British statesmen. All the rest of America the Britishers can analyze when they attempt to measure the pro or anti ally leanings of Americans. The Middle West stumps them. It isn't anti ally, but it isn't anti German, they say. What is it then? I have had this question asked me by such leading Englishmen as Sir William Tirrell and St. Joe Strachey, editor of The Spectator. An American in Europe for two years during the war couldn't answer the question. Here in Mercedes in the heart of the military district where middle west regiments of militia abound you shortly discover why the middle west hasn't taken sides in the European war. "So you were in the war in Europe?" a fleshy officer asks you. "You'll find his type throughout the German army; also his broken English. "What side were you on?" "Both sides," you say; and he smiles. His name is F. E. Resche and as brigade commander of the three Minnesota regiments he has some 2500 American soldiers under him. "Look at his face and see if he doesn't look like an Englishman," says Col. H. V. Eva of the second Minnesota regiment, into whose tent Resche has just come. "I was born in England and I know an English fellow when I see one," continues the Colonel. Resche laughs heartily. "Come on, come on," he says in his broken English to the Colonel, who is his inferior. "Didn't you promise me you'd ride to town with me?" So the man who was born in England and the man who was born in Germany, both soldiers in Uncle Sam's army, ride away together in an automobile, laughing. A British statesman puzzling over the Middle West, would have broken his thinking machine at the very sight. When Private C. H. Stangler of Lemington, Nebraska, was drowned a few days ago, Colonel George A. Eberly of the Fourth Nebraska found a diver from the British army in his regiment who volunteered to seek the body. Kuan Zoo Lee of Korea and Kearney, Nebraska, is a member of Company L, Fourth Nebraska. Omaha and Hastings companies have several Greeks on their rosters. Such men are likely to add to the neutrality of the Middle West. In the Fourth Nebraska also is Winfield Haldt, who was on the Carib, sunk by a mine in the North sea, when he and the crew, with the exception of three killed by the explosions, were picked up by the Germans and later released. He's a neutral type. The First North Dakotas include large numbers of Scandinavians and Col. J. H. Frayne is said to be able to give orders in the Scandinavian tongue when necessary. Two hundred and eighty Quaker cavalymen from Iowa add a further mixture to the mixed hue of the Middle West. An English statesman in Texas would shortly find an answer to his question as to why the Middle West is neutral.

Women Rookies at "Chevy Chase." Lake Geneva, Wis., Aug. 16.—Clad in khaki skirts, olive drab flannel waists, regulation army hats and tan shoes, 150 women rookies here today are making themselves ready "for any national emergency." The women are attending National Service school No. 3 of the Woman's section of the Navy league. They started the day by undergoing a course in military calisthenics. They will do it before breakfast every day for two weeks. The women rookies were ready for the muscle making exercise at 6:40. Breakfast is served at 7:30, police call at 8 o'clock, inspection at 8:30. Drills, classes, lectures and entertainment take up the remainder of the day. Taps is sounded at 9:30 p. m. Sundays the women arise half an hour later than on week days. Church at 3 p. m. is extra on Sundays. The courses include home care of the sick, knitting and plain sewing, signal work, first aid, diets for the sick, surgical dressings, plain and wireless telegraphy, automobile and ambulance driving. "The women are in earnest, too," said Mrs. Vylla Poe Wilson of Washington, who is directing the course. Mrs. Wilson and her sister, Miss Elizabeth E. Poe, were the first to think of a National Service school for women. The first was held at Chevy Chase, near Washington, in May and was such a success that San Francisco demanded one in June. A fourth school will be held in Rhode Island some time in September.

Pats On The Back Nearly Wrecked This Man A writer in the September American Magazine says: "I have always been obsessed with a desire to be patted on the back. I am that economic hybrid, the successful failure, just escaping complete wreck by suddenly realizing the truth. The other day, just after I had been promoted to a position of considerable importance a friend slapped me on the back and said, "Good Boy, I knew they would appreciate your worth some day." His words were gall. I had held the same position more than twenty years before. I had merely won back by hard work a position that in early manhood, I had achieved without much effort."

SACRED TOOTH OF BUDDHA. The Palace in Ceylon in Which This Relic is Preserved. At all times of the year in Kandy, Ceylon, may be seen followers of Buddha making their way to the great Mahigawa temple, the "Palace of the Sacred Tooth," in order to lay offerings and flowers at the shrine of the founder of their religion. Entering the temple, they pass into a small room, some twelve feet square, in which is kept the famous tooth of Buddha. The chamber is lighted by two lamps which have not been allowed to go out for years. The walls are splendidly decorated, and the vessel—called the Karundua—containing the tooth stands on a massive silver table amidst a gorgeous array of jewels and other valuable gifts. The Karundua is draped with muslin, beneath which is a silver dome studded with gems, and under this is a dome of gold, beautifully carved and literally incrustured with precious stones. Two similar coverings lie below them, and beneath these is a small case of gold, in which on leaves of a gold lotus reposes the tooth itself. This relic, carefully guarded, is seldom seen by others than priests. So much in reverence is the tooth held that to lay an offering to Buddha on the table bearing it is an ambition which every Buddhist would not fail to gratify if circumstances permitted.—Pearson's Weekly.

WORK IS HEALTH. Idleness is Often the Cause of Human Disease and Decay. Work is not the curse nor the affliction that some people think it is. When taken in proper doses it is the best of medicines. It is now being prescribed for many forms of invalidism, such as heart disease, Bright's disease, nervousness and particularly for insanity. The lack of work is often the cause of many chronic maladies, and it is a wise physician who can determine when one needs work instead of rest and in prescribing the remedy produce no unpleasant situations. About the most unhealthful person, as well as the most unhappy and useless, is the person with nothing to do. Work is a dispeller of fears. It is the exercise that is as essential to the body and mind as are food and air. It is only when work is carried to excess that it becomes injurious, as in the case with food, rest and all good things. The ideal of a healthy, happy life is no longer a world where work is not necessary and life is one grand sweet song of idleness. Life is activity; in the broad sense it is work—work that produces and entails sacrifice. It is not less work that we need, but work in the right proportions and under the right conditions. Such work is health.—North Carolina Health Bulletin.

The Oasis of Jupiter. The oasis of Siva is better known as the oasis of Jupiter Ammon, one of the most famous oracles of antiquity. The visit of Alexander the Great to this temple was among the most romantic incidents of his career. He came to ask whether he was only the son of the mortal Philip or the son of the great god himself. Apparently Alexander received full assurance from the oracle of his divine origin, with the promise of unbroken victory until he should be taken away to join the gods. And many signs showed his superhuman status. Rain fell in the desert just when his soldiers' thirst required it, and when his guides lost their way two speaking serpents or ravens appeared to direct them.—London Chronicle.

Took It as a Joke. There is a story of Mr. Disraeli at the time of his extremely bluntpointed youth when he had just returned from his travels in the east. As a young man, much under thirty, he met Lord Melbourne, who was then prime minister, at dinner. Lord Melbourne proceeded to discourse on the eastern question, but instead of listening to the prime minister with the respect which he ought young Disraeli said, "It seems to me that your lordship has taken your knowledge of the east from 'The Arabian Nights.'" Some prime ministers would have snubbed the young man severely. Lord Melbourne was not of that kind. He rubbed his hands with great cheerfulness and said to the young man, "And a devilish good place to take it from!"

Perverved Proverbs. Strike while the ire is hot. The more waist the less speed. A thrown kiss spreads no germs. One swallow doesn't make a supper. It's a long loan that has no returning. It is more blessed to give than to be given away. A little change in the pocket is worth two changes in the weather.—Boston Transcript.

Her Retort. Husband (at breakfast)—Oh, for some of the biscuit my mother used to make! Wife (sweetly)—I'm sorry you can't have them, dear. They would be just about stale enough by this time to go quite well with that remark.—Indianapolis Star.

Rubber Trees. India rubber trees which are tapped every other day continue to yield sap for more than twenty years, and the oldest and most frequently tapped trees produce the richest sap. Agreed. He kissed her suddenly. "Well, I like that!" she cried. "So do I," he answered, and she let it go at that.
