the profession. This little damsel has just entered her "teens," and the future is bright before her. She plays in the first act the role of Mignon Kind, the daughter of the American consul at Hong Kong, a role Miss Mersereau takes up in the second act and proceeds to the end of the story, as the little child grown to young womanhood.

Sensational features abound in the pictorial narrative of Oriental intrigue and villainy which begins in China and culminates in the complete undoing of the plotters, among the mysterious and ever interesting mysteries of New York's Chinatown. "Broken Fetters" is a strong photoplay, and worthy to be classed among the best of the Bluebirds.

Fashions

BY MARGARET MASON

Again of nighties now I sing, Of nighties sheer that closely cling, So fine they'll pass inside a ring, And O, they cost like anything.

New York, Aug. 18.—If there should be a shortage in the Georgette crepe output goodness knows what would ever become of us. Not only are most all our day clothes made of this family fabric, but all of our night clothes as well. So we couldn't go out and we couldn't go to bed. The chances are we'd take the only course left to us and go daffy.

However, no such dire calamity presages at the moment of going to press. The Georgette crepe industry flourishes; so likewise does the diaphanous nightgown fashioned of this far from opaque material.

The georgette crepe nightie is truly a thing of beauty, but hardly a joy forever as it scarcely has the lasting qualities of a nainsook or even a crepe de chine gown.

Some of the most exquisite models are the most simple, relying on the perfection of the material for their sole charm. One Empire model of flesh tinted Georgette is sleeveless and is bordered around the neck and the armholes with a heading of fine fecting. A wide band of flesh satin ribbon run under the footing makes the high waistline.

A unique finish on another flesh toned model is formed of tiny pale blue baby ribbon. One with this finish in pink, and another in mauve are also shown. All of the gowns come in white and ivory also.

Another charming finish is a tiny hemstitched banding of the Crepe Georgette itself, either in blue or mauve on either flesh gowns and pink, blue or mauve on the white.

Lavender, by the way is rapidly superseding that erstwhile Frenchy favorite, pale blue, as a combination with flesh underwear and touches of mauve are found on nearly every smart new article of lingerie this season.

The pajama girl is not the rarity now that she used to be. She is no longer the pink pajama girl, however, although she still is the pink of perfection. Alluring indeed are the 1916 pajamas of maize, mauve blue or rose broche narrowly banded in lavender, all save the mauve one which has a Nile green finish.

For the vacillating maid who cannot quite make up her mind between the enchanting nighties and the alluring pajamas comes a pajama nightgown if you please. It is of pink batiste, crepe de chine or crepe georgette and is cut in one with a nightie top and an ending of full pantaloon like Pierrot always wears with a cunning lace edged frill around the ankles. Bifurcated fashions also have spread to negligees, and a recent imported model has full Turkish trousers of crepe de chine, a crush taffeta girle of contrasting shade, and a blouse and loose coat of crepe georgette. The blouse is finished around the neck with a wide fringed double ruche of the taffeta.

ARCADE

Louise Huff in Delightful Character. Many are the treasurers which lie buried in the sea, Joe Martin, a lone fisherman, had often dreamed that the sea had cast its riches at his feet, but his vision never was realized until one day he waded out among the rocks to pull ashore a bundle and found—a little girl! It was not the treasure of which he had dreamed, but as the days lengthened into years, Martin swore that old Father Neptune had given him the greatest treasure he possessed.

And since beautiful Louise Huff is the personification of the bounty of the sea, there will be thousands of motion picture enthusiasts who will agree with Martin. It all happens in the Famous Players production, "Destiny's Toy," in which Miss Huff makes her first appearance as a permanent member of the Famous Players forces since winning a host of friends by her delightful performance in that company's celebrated adaptation of Denman Thompson's classic, "The Old Homestead," in which she scored such a personal success. "Destiny's Toy" is the current Paramount feature at the Arcade theatre.

In addition to Miss Huff the cast includes several other popular players, among them John Bowers, J. W. Johnston and Harry Lee.

Just the Thing for Diarrhoea. "About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.

British Housewives Use Cardboard Cans. London, Aug. 21.—The housewife's season for putting up fruit is on here today, but she has no glass jars therefor. Specially prepared cardboard cans are used by manufacturers and housewives. They are all right except for liquids.

It is slightly laxative. Dr. King's New Discovery eases your cough, soothes your throat and bronchial tubes, checks your cold, starts to clear your head. In a short time you know your cold is better. It's the standard family cough syrup in use over 40 years. Get a bottle at once. Keep it in the house as a cold insurance. Sold at your druggist.

In Love; Imprisoned. Berne, Aug. 21.—The news reached here today that a widow at Stettin, Germany, was sentenced to 18 months in prison at hard labor because she fell in love with a Russian prisoner of war. Her daughter Olga, 19, also was sentenced to six months at hard labor for merely flirting with a Russian prisoner.

SHERRY'S

At Sherry's Tomorrow.

When the Bluebird Photoplay, "Broken Fetters," is exhibited at the Sherry theatre tomorrow with Violet Mersereau as the star, there will be displays of Oriental splendors the equal of which has never been duplicated in moving pictures. The charm and quaintness of Oriental ceremonies, the gorgeousness of costuming and the typical scenic charms of the Far East afford limitless scope for entrancing embellishments and in producing the latest Bluebird feature Director Rex Ingram has availed himself of every opportunity to give charm and daintiness to an impelling story.

Miss Mersereau will be recalled with delight as the star of "The Great Problem," one of the best liked features among the earlier Bluebirds and her return will be hailed joyfully by the hundreds of admirers of her past appearances on the screen. William Garwood, her leading man, plays the role of an impoverished artist, cast off by his wealthy parents because he insists upon sticking to brush and palette instead of settling down to the grind of business life.

One of the most pleasing personalities among the Bluebird players supporting Miss Mersereau in "Broken Fetters" will be little Kittens Reicherts, the youngest picture actress in
