W. A. WINTERS GIVEN DEGREE

WILLAMETTE HONORS LA GRANDE MINISTER.

Institution's Only Laurel This Year Comes to Superintendent.

Willamette university has conferred the degree of doctor of divinity upon W. A. Winters, district superintendent of the Methodist church in the Idaho conference, with headquarters in La Grande. Dr. Winters was the only individual in the Northwest to get that degree from Willamette this year.

The La Grande divine is not a graduate of Willamette, but of Ohio Wesleyan, yet the Salem institution recognized the superintendent here, as it only has on two previous occasions in the La Grande district. J. D. Gillilan, also previously of La Grande, and Rev. G. W. Barnes, of Idaho, are the two men Willamette had previously bestowed the degree on in this conference.

Honors of this sort came entirely unexpectedly to Mr. Winters. He had been asked to deliver the commencement address at the Salem school this summer, and following that distinction came the school's degree.

TEAMSTER STRIKE.

Contractor Oberg Has Walkout On His Hands at Enterprise.

Enterprise, Aug. 19.—A novelty was presented in Enterprise last Friday, a strike in the building trades. Six men joined in the walkout, forcing the laying off of six others, and stopping, temporarily, the work on one contract.

The strikers were teamsters employed by John Oberg on the excavation for the S. D. Keltner building. They had been receiving $4.50 a day for nine hours work, or 50 cents an hour for a man and team, the scale that has been prevailing all spring. They asked $5 a day. Mr. Oberg replied that he would pay that wage for 10 hours work, maintaining the rate per hour. This is the rate paid for men and teams this season by the East Oregon company and other employers.

This was not satisfactory to the teamsters and they quit. They were handling Fresno scrapers, hauling dirt to the low place in West Second street near the flume, adjoining Ross & Falconer's building.

Most of the teamsters found work later that day or on Saturday, either with Mr. Oberg or on the E. M. & M. job elsewhere, and at the old rate of pay. A few new teamsters with wagons were hired shortly on the Keltner job, and a placard with the word "scab" was tacked on one of the wagons, where it was left unconcernedly by the driver, Sam Banister, who concluded to put in a few days at teaming.

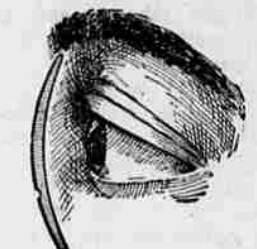

Last fall there was a small strike of stonemasons on a new building, two men insisting on a shorter work day, and being promptly supplanted by others.
