Dr. Pagliere Blames War for High Food Prices

Buenos Aires, Aug. 25.—Dr. Jose Marcus Pagliere today denied the report that the Radical party soon to put its hand to the administrative machinery in Argentina has no program. The statement has been made by a number of their political opponents and by many radicals themselves.

Dr. Pagliere, a prominent Radical who probably will have a place in President-Elect Irigoyen's cabinet, says they are mistaken.

"We Radicals," he declared today, "are men of action, with deeds, not words, for our daily motto. Personally I look forward to a new constitutional life in Argentina which will make our nationality as immovable as the rock."

"There will be more security for the people and for the stranger."

Dr. Pagliere said the Radicals will reduce food prices.

"The European war," he said today, "has unnecessarily increased the cost of bread in Argentina to 15-12 cents for 2 pounds and 2 ounces. We have studied this matter and at the end of 3 months of experiment have disposed of much bread at 8 cents and 8 mills for 2 pounds and 2 ounces. This was done without the loss of a single cent. We will do the same with meat and milk very soon."

WOULD YOU HIDE VACCINATION MARK? USE A WEE-KISS!

If you have a vaccination mark, hide it! Hide it with a "wee-kiss." Ha! Who will give you a "wee-kiss." You make it. That's what Wanda Lyon did. This famous beauty of "A World of Pleasure" was so anxious to hide a vaccination mark she invented the "wee-kiss." It's a little butterfly thing of silk which she glues on her arm. It hides the scar, also attracts admiring eyes.

The Best Laxative.

To keep the bowels regular the best laxative is outdoor exercise. Drink a full glass of water half an hour before breakfast and eat an abundance of fruit and vegetables, also establish a regular habit and be sure that your bowels move once each day. When a medicine is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are pleasant to take and mild and gentle in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

Cowboys to "Yip Yae" for Hughes

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 25.—A crowd of cowboys and cattlemen from nearby ranches and ranges came to Cheyenne today to "yip yae" when Charles E. Hughes arrives for tonight's mass meeting here. The picturesque "frontiersmen" also will be in evidence when the Republican candidate delivers his address tonight, the only set speech on his schedule in Wyoming.

Governor and Mrs. Hughes left Salt Lake City at midnight and were due to arrive in Cheyenne late this afternoon, rear platform talks at Rawlins, Laramie and possibly other Wyoming towns being almost certain to delay him.

Liver Trouble.

"I am bothered with liver trouble about twice a year," writes Joe Dingman, Webster City, Iowa. "I have pains in my side and back and an awful soreness in my stomach. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and tried them. By the time I had used half a bottle of them I was feeling fine and had no signs of pain." Obtainable everywhere.

Poor Little Rich Boy

Nyack, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Willie Crossman Lee, "the poor little rich boy" who cried and said he was "tired of being dragged around the country" by relatives interested in the $2,000,000 estate he inherits from the late William Crossman, coffee king, will shift guardians again here today.

Supreme Court Justice Tompkins decided that De Witt H. Kenyon, Port Chester lawyer, must return the boy to Mrs. Emma Kenyon Lee, mother of Frederick T. Lee of White Plains, stepfather of the boy.

The battle for possession of the 2 million dollar boy has waged hotly for more than a year in the New York courts between William Mills, Jr., of California, father of the boy and Lee, his stepfather. His father started seven separate actions to get the boy and the management of his estate, but lost every one.

The boy's mother, who divorced Mills and married Lee, died in New York 2 years ago. Testimony at the hearing said that Mills never had taken any interest in his son until he inherited the estate of the coffee king. The boy testified that his mother had impressed on him the desirability of remaining with his stepfather.

The lawyer had been appointed guardian a few months ago, and the boy taken away from Lee. Lee and his mother hid the boy and were haled into court. It is expected that they will now be permitted to keep him.

Just the Thing for Diarrhoea.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.

Girl's Heroism Fatal.

In the effort to save her seven year old sister, Ethel, from drowning in the Columbia near Lyle, Miss Myrtle Gutcher, aged 14, sacrificed her own life. Ethel was rescued by a farmer and resuscitated, but the older sister who has been in the water 45 minutes could not be revived.
