Next Friday evening the Presbyterian church Aid Society will serve ice cream on the L. Given lawn adjoining the Elks' building where the concert will be held. At the same evening the race meet boxes will be auctioned off and promises to be something of more than ordinary band concert night nature.

The St. Peter's Episcopal Sunday school will hold a picnic Thursday, August 31 at Riverside park. All members of the church Guild and Sunday school are cordially invited to come and bring their lunch baskets. Parents are urged to come and bring their children and have a good time.

It is now permissible for hotel runners to leave grips and baggage at the east end of the depot. For many months they were confined to a restricted territory on Jefferson street which compelled hotel patrons to carry their own suit cases a considerable distance, and to those unacquainted with the place of leaving baggage was often a severe nuisance. The traveling public is expressing its appreciation of the change in orders which puts the baggage where it can be seen from the station platform.
