Money to Loan.

On improved real property in Union county, no delays, current rates. La Grande Investment Co.—Adv.

Commencing Aug. 27 and continuing until September 1st, reduced rates for the automobile show in Portland will be effective out of La Grande on the certificate plan.

George Davis, at one time a conductor out of here and later in the saloon business, has passed away at Salem. Definite funeral arrangements have not been made known here. He was an Elk.

Last week a most delightful social affair was attended by a number of friends and relatives of Mrs. Fred Geibel. On the day set for the surprise Mrs. Geibel had been called to a neighbor's for lunch and on her return to her home she found the lawn in charge of a group of friends. The afternoon was spent in a delightful way and was in the nature of a farewell for Mrs. Geibel who leaves September 1st for Baker to join her husband who is employed there. Although regretting the departure of Mrs. Geibel after her long stay in La Grande, the event was in every way an enjoyable affair.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Erickson arrived home this morning from her vacation.

Mrs. E. E. Kirtley and two little sons have returned from a visit of three weeks with relatives in Chehalis, Wash.

H. E. Coolidge, an assistant cashier in the La Grande National bank, is again at his desk after a vacation over a period of a couple of months.

Alvin P. Snapp and family have returned from a camping expedition at Blue Springs, south of town, extending over a period of two weeks.

Art Wenzel has gone to Wallowa county to go over the Forest Fire association trails with wardens of that county. He expects to be gone several days.

Mrs. H. Conally, who has been on a visit of a couple of weeks with her sons, Phillip, George and Edward, left today on her return to her home in Weiser, Idaho.

Dr. Hall and family, who have been on an auto tour of a month through Washington and western Oregon and the coast, are expected to return by tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Zuber and her daughter Mrs. Ben Noyes and Mrs. Hoffman are home from a very pleasant automobile trip through interior and Southern Oregon. Crater lake being one incident of their long trip.

If you love your husband buy UPPER CRUST.—Adv. 8-2-tf.

It is noticed Silverthorn's Family Drug Store is much torn up during the remodeling of the building, which is practically a real new building from cellar to garret. It is quite a task to reconstruct a drug store where such a large and widely assorted stock is carried and yet they seem to be very busy and enjoy a large patronage during this remodeling. Their new fixtures are all white enamel and very plain and modern as the best in any part of the country east or west. The new arrangement of this drug store gives much greater space and more than double the shelf room, and one of the best basements in the west.

One Way of Saving. We have in stock a large number of used school books which can hardly be distinguished from new ones, and on which we can effect for you a big saving.—Newlin Book & Stationery Co.—Adv. 8-22-tf.

Gifford & Co., stationed at Colfax, Wash., is here looking after property interests and will return this evening.

George Jasper and family, who have been on a visit with relatives and friends in Grande Ronde the past two weeks, will leave tomorrow for their home in Freewater. They made the trip over in their car and came by the toll road route.

Mrs. G. E. Luper, of Palmer Valley, Wash., is in Fruitdale on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Davis. On Sunday an informal reception was held for the visitor in Riverside park and the same was attended by a number of Mrs. Luper's friends and former neighbors.

Miss Emma Woods, proprietor of the store on Fourth street in South La Grande, is a former Red Cross nurse and has received notice from headquarters in Washington to be in readiness to respond in case of emergency for Red Cross nurse duties on the Mexican border.

K. D. Meyers of the Arcade left last night for Portland to look after plans for a new theatre which the Arcade management contemplates building this fall. He was accompanied by Master Ted Leiter who will visit a few days with his father O. C. Leiter of the Journal staff.

Dr. Tape was in La Grande today looking after business preliminary to leaving for Los Angeles after joining Mrs. Tape at Portland. They have been in the east where they were caught in the hot spell and in Chicago the doctor saw nearly two score men die of heat convulsions in one night.

The Crater lake visitors including Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp and Mr. and Mrs. E. Polack have returned after an auto trip taking them over a good portion of southern and western Oregon. They were away nearly a month and had a good time as indicated more particularly in some of the letters written en route by Mrs. Bohnenkamp and printed in previous editions of the Observer.

Mrs. Cole and her daughter both missionaries to Turkey, but now residing in Forest Grove, returned to their home today after visiting at the Dr. H. L. Underwood home. Miss Cole delivered an interesting address yesterday at the Methodist church on missionary affairs in Turkey and of conditions in England and Scotland where she was interned two years of the war. The older lady spent 40 years of her life in Turkey as a missionary.
