Our
Coal
Creed

WE believe in good coal, in clean coal, in coal that looks good, burns better and heats best of all.

WE believe in a business policy of fair prices, square dealing and liberal treatment of customers, great and small.

WE believe in a discriminating public that knows what it wants and knows where to buy it.

WE believe in ourselves and the goods we sell.

WE believe that we have the most desirable stock of coal to be found in La Grande.

Attorneys this morning argued the Franc Wilhelm divorce suit against his wife for separation. The arguments occupied a considerable portion of the day.

Farmers are too busy harvesting to pay taxes, it is indicated by the paucity of checks pushed over the counter to the tax collector these days. The last half of the taxes are payable prior to Oct. 5th after which one per cent interest attaches for 30 days after which a five per cent penalty attaches. There is a considerable bulk of money yet to be turned in.
