ARCADE

New Hart Picture Filmed in Desert.

William S. Hart, the acknowledged peer of Western character portrayals, will be seen in another gripping Triangle drama today and tomorrow at the Arcade when he is presented by Thomas H. Ince as the star of "The Aryan," an original story by C. Gardner Sullivan. This, it is declared, is one of the most tensely compelling narratives ever penned by the prolific and versatile author and suits to a nicety the capabilities of the screen's popular "bad man."

"Oft written in letters of blood; deep-carved in the face of destiny, that all men may read, runs the code of the Aryan race: 'Our women shall be guarded' * * * And a man of the white-skinned race may forget much—friends, duty, honor, but this he will not, he cannot forget." Such is the text of the theme chosen by Sullivan in preparing this latest Triangle story for Hart.

Hart plays the part of a rugged man of the desert, who, having been fleeced of his fortune by the degraded women of a lawless town, turns against the feminine sex. He becomes the ruler of renegades in a self-built mining camp, utterly despising women for ensuing years, until he is awakened to the code of his race by a gentle, fearless girl, who trusts him.

The play is unusual in other things besides its theme. For instance, it has no romantic love interest at all. The man's affection for the girl is too fine a thing to touch his senses. Yearning for so exquisite a companionship, he yet turns away in pure unselfishness, knowing himself unworthy.

"The Aryan" was produced, almost in its entirety, on the sands of the Mojave Desert in California, where the blistering sun is almost unbearable.

Sloan's Liniment for Neuralgia Aches

The dull throb of neuralgia is quickly relieved by Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain. Easy to apply; it quickly penetrates without rubbing and soothes the sore muscles. Cleaner and more promptly effective than musky plasters or ointment; does not stain the skin or clog the pores. For stiff muscles, chronic rheumatism, gout, lumbago, sprains and strains it gives quick relief. Sloan's Liniment reduces the pain and inflammation in insect bites, bruises, bumps and other minor injuries to children. Get a bottle today at your druggists, 25c.—Adv.

Her Heroism Defies Skirts

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 3.—Without stopping to take off her skirt, Mrs. Sadie Carr of Brookville leaped into the Delaware River this afternoon and saved a nineteen-year-old girl.

A Y. W. C. A. party is camping at Brookville and several members went swimming yesterday afternoon. Miss Jeanette Paul of No. 123 Passaic Street, a stenographer, became frightened when she found herself far from shore, and screamed. So did the other girls.

Mrs. Carr, who lives in a bungalow near by, ran out and saw the girl. Without a moment's hesitation she plunged in and brought Miss Paul to shore. Stimulants were given the girl, and she was soon able to return to camp with her friends.
