ARCADE

Popular Star Booked.

Bianche Sweet, the popular idol of the screen, will be seen at the Arcade Friday and Saturday in the Jesse L. Lasky production on the Paramount program of "The Dupe," written especially for her by Hector Turnbull and prepared for the screen by Margaret Turnbull.

Bianche Sweet, by her ability alone, has risen to be one of the most distinguished artists of the silent drama. The Lasky company has given her many different roles to portray; she has been a child of the slums, a Russian anarchist, a maid of all work, a hell of society, and in "The Dupe" she is seen as the social secretary to a capricious and flighty society woman. The story tells how, as a countrified young girl she secures employment as a social secretary in a wealthy family. The wife, madly in love with a young society man, becomes jealous of his attentions to her assistant. Wishing to rid herself of her husband and compel the young man to marry her, she manages to place the girl in a compromising position with her husband, where she is also seen by the man she loves. How the affair is adjusted and she eventually is united with the one whom she loves, is presented in a most unusual and attractive manner.

The play holds the attention of the audience in tense suspense during the entire five reels.

Miss Sweet is surrounded by an all-star cast of unusual excellence, including such distinguished artists as Ernest Joy, Veda McEvers and Thomas. The production was made for the Lasky company under the direction of Frank Reicher.

SHERRY'S

William Farnum's Name is Known Everywhere.

The name of William Farnum is enough to guarantee a crowd in any moving-picture theatre in the world.

In every country where the films attract, William Fox's feature plays are shown, and wherever Fox's pictures are shown, Farnum is known. No one can know Farnum without liking him. He is big, manly, whole-hearted; he is kind and considerate. He can be as gentle as a lamb or as fierce as a lion, at a moment's notice.

William Farnum comes from a family of actors who have made their names known on stage as well as screen. Farnum himself has been starred in dozens of large New York productions.

"The Man from Bitter Roots," Caroline Lockhart's story in which Farnum acts, has a role for a man of virility and strength. The hero is a miner who battles against enormous odds, to achieve the happiness that is his in the end. His fight is practically for life or death. He emerges victorious. At Sherry's.

Are You Looking Old?

Old age comes quick enough without inviting it. Some look old at 40. That is because they neglect the liver and bowels. Keep your bowels regular and your liver healthy and you will not only feel younger but look younger. When troubled with constipation or biliousness take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are intended especially for these ailments and are excellent. Easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Two World Problems

Jesus and Paul stand at every head of the world-answers of the problem of pain. It is, next to sin, the greatest problem of life; and they answer the problem, not by explaining pain, but by bearing it. Jesus and Paul were companions in their pain. The Saviour's call to Paul was a call to suffer. He said to Ananias when he sent him to comfort Paul: "I will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake."

It is a shameful thing to try to avoid hardship and suffering. We gain by great endurance far more than we can lose.—The Christian Herald.
