NEW PASTOR REACHES CITY

METHODIST CHURCH SOUTH
MAKES CHANGE.

Special Meetings Begin in the Baptist Church Monday.

La Grande's pulpit fraternity has a new member in S. M. Roberts who comes to the Methodist church South from Richland to take the place of Rev. J. H. Lumpner who has gone to Boise from whence he will fill the Boise valley circuit. Rev. and Mrs. Roberts and their two sons Richard and Milton, both of whom are now in the high school here, have not definitely located but hope to have a home very soon. The present parsonage of the church is inadequate for the family. Until they become located they have no permanent address and no telephone facilities. Rev. Roberts preaches in his new pulpit tomorrow. Special Services Begin.

At the Baptist church on Sunday evening at 7:30 the Texas cowboy with the Boston culture will lecture, and on Monday evening, Rev. H. E. Marshall, the noted evangelist of Salem, Oregon, will speak. Everyone is invited to attend.

EXHIBITS TO FAIR READY

THREE SEPARATE DISPLAYS
FROM GRANDE RONDE.

Men to Direct Exploitation of the County To Be Present.

Commencing today, soil products exhibits of Union county, and men to direct their proper display, will be shipped forward at various intervals for exhibition at the state fair in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Lantz, proprietors of Fairview Farm, Cove, will be the first to take an exhibit to Salem, this one being purely individual. Wednesday of next week, County Agriculturist Paul H. Spillman sends forward one of the best-selected farm exhibits ever entered in a competition from this county. On the same train a grains and grasses exhibit from the state branch experiment station at Union will be sent.

down by Manager Robert Withycombe. The men needed to properly display and direct the exhibits, and keep visitors to the fair properly advised about them will be Mr. and Mrs. Lantz, Mr. Withycombe and Mr. Spillman. Mr. Spillman has gone far and long to gather this group of soil products for the county and confidently hopes to bring back for Union county some laurels worth while.

Director To Be Present.
J. E. Reynolds, a member of the fair commission, will spend the fair week in Salem, and F. B. Curry, assistant superintendent of agriculture and horticulture, leaves tonight to prepare the display rooms and auditoriums for the incoming exhibits. From 11 county exhibits a year ago, the fair will this year lay claim to exactly double that amount.

The booth in which the county exhibit will be displayed during the fair, carries a large and slightly banner with these words: "Union county, 300 miles east of Portland on the O-W. The land of health, prosperity and contentment. Stock, fruit, timber and grain."

Nineteen Sixteen Football Season Officially Declared on Today

Berkely, California, Sept. 16.—The football season of 1916 will be officially placed in running order here this afternoon when the squad from the University of California will meet the eleven from the Olympic club. This is the first game of the new season, for any college, that is of any importance in the United States.

Three Governors Meet in Famous Corn Growing County

Lebanon, Ind., Sept. 16.—Boone county, famous as the home of prize winning corn, today entertained three governors: Samuel M. Ralston of Indiana, a native of the county; Thomas G. Bilbo of Mississippi and Governor Pleasant of Louisiana. The southerners came to help the Indiana governor make the county's celebration of Indiana's centennial a success.

Grand Opera in the Open Air.
New York, Sept. 15.—Six dollar grand opera will be reduced to 25c at two performances to be given in City College Stadium here today. For two bits the Metropolitan soloists and orchestra may be heard. The performances are to be benefits for the Civic Orchestral society.

The Cold Weather

SHOULD REMIND YOU THAT "the Good Old Summer Time" is about over, and that Jack Frost will soon be here. Time to put up that stove, clean out the furnace, ditch your Summer clothes, and prepare for Zero weather. You will need some of our REAL Coal. Coal prices are higher than in June and July, but you can still save some money, by getting your fuel now. Coal and Wood will be higher this winter than last. Our Coal must be GOOD or we couldn't have sold 20 cars in the last month.

Shoot some of our famous HIAWATHA or ROCK SPRINGS in to that furnace, start her up on high and watch her go. COAL, STOVE WOOD, CHAIN WOOD, FEED, HAY, STORAGE, DRAYAGE.
