Are You Looking Old? Old age comes quick enough without inviting it. Some look old at 40. That is because they neglect the liver and bowels. Keep your bowels regular and your liver healthy and you will not only feel younger but look younger. When troubled with constipation or biliousness take Chamberlain's tablets. They are intended especially for these ailments and are excellent. Easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

SHERRY'S

Last Day of "The Tortured Heart."

In the quaint setting of an old-fashioned Southern church is enacted a scene of pretty effect in William Fox's photodrama, "A Tortured Heart," starring Virginia Pearson. The Rev. Joseph Lorimore (Stephen Grattan), village pastor finds a foundling on the steps of his church, and the townspeople scorn his interest in the child, who grows up to be a charming young woman, a part taken by Marian Swayne.

In the rectory parlor the spinsters of the little town assemble to see the baby.

From this point the story unfolds its tale of the evils of gossip, uncharitableness and all that these unwholesome qualities bring in "heart torture." Stuart Holmes in his villainous part as Leon Muller, does his best to bring suffering to the characters and his power of evil seems at first greater than the kindly parson's power for good.

ARCADE

Maie Murray Film Here

Maie Murray, the beautiful Lasky star, will be seen at the Arcade today and tomorrow, in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Dream Girl," a thrilling, whimsical story written especially for the Paramount Program by Janie MacPherson, the brilliant photodramatist, and produced under the personal direction of Cecil B. DeMille, Lasky Company Director-General.

As Lady Jocelyn Leigh in "To Have and to Hold," Miss Murray made her screen debut and scored a pronounced success. Again as the mischievous widow in "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," she increased her popularity and established herself as a photodramatic artist of distinction. But as the little child of the slums in "The Dream Girl," she is said to have surpassed any of her previous triumphs.

The story has to do with a little child of the slums who, believing her dissolute father killed, runs away from her tenement home. In an ash barrel she has found a dilapidated volume of "King Arthur and His Knights of the Round Table," and her romantic brain pictures Sir Galahad coming to rescue her.

Lured by the dance music from the house next to the orphanage, where a fancy dress ball is being held, she climbs over the wall and there in the garden comes face to face with her Knight.

How she is taken from the orphanage, saves her sweetheart's sister from the clutches of an unscrupulous crook, again encounters her father and eventually is united with the man she loves, is brought about by a series of unusual incidents.

Fido is a Working Dog Now. Berne, Switzerland, Sept. 29.—If any citizen of the "occupied" Balkans has lost his dog he'll probably find it in the German army. All of the pups in Austria-Hungary, Serbia, Montenegro and the occupied parts of Albania have been requisitioned, not for sausage but to replace draft horses.

Baptist Meetings Keep Interest
Revival services at the Baptist church continue with interest and attendance good. Evangelist Marshall spoke last night on "Christ the Mediator." The Evangelist speaks tonight on "Is Jesus Christ the Son of God?" An urgent invitation is extended to all to hear his sermon on "The Deity of Christ."
