REITH HOMES SPRINGING UP.

Personal Mention and News From New Railroad Division Points.

Reith, Oct. 2.—The house movers have been busy the past two weeks and have removed the residence and all out buildings, including the large dairy barn of George Geanakopoulos from between the tracks to new locations outside of the railroad yards. J. M. Harrison attended the state fair at Salem last week and also looked after business matters in that section of the state.

Arthur G. Means has moved his family here from Umatilla and has shipped his stock of general merchandise in for the opening of his store within the next few days.

C. E. Powell, night yardmaster, has moved his family into one of the Roberts cottages in the west end, being the first to occupy a house in that section.

Ray D. Bunnell and G. S. McClellan have deserted coalesce and boxcar take up residence in the new hotel built by Mr. Roberts.

J. D. Dunbar has moved his family to La Grande, having been transferred back to that point where he was formerly employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Powell have returned from La Grande and have moved into the boxcar recently vacated by Mr. McClellan.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Rudd have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Dungan east of the Roundhouse. This location is much more desirable on account of the absence of dust when the wind blows.

H. B. Myers has moved his family back to Pendleton again, tent life in these dust storms being anything but pleasant.

Robert Alego, from The Dalles, at the new car checker nights, relieving Charely Beam, who resigned to go to Spokane.

Elva Ranch, who formerly worked in Foreman Ring's bridge gang, is now night call boy and Jack Milliron is day call boy.

Jack Omeara, in charge of the pile driver, has been here this week driving piling under tracks for the subway just west of the depot completing the work Friday.

Switchman George Leete has accepted the position as night yardmaster at Huntington and will do so today to commence work.
