Pitching a Camp Tent.

The spot where your tent is to stand should be open. Have it as close to the woods as you wish, but so that the sun will shine on your tent. Sunlight is the healthiest thing in the world. It is the best disinfectant. If you pitch your tent under the thick trees there will always be an unhealthy dampness, and mosquitoes will flock in. Then, too, in thunderstorms there is less danger in the open than under trees. The all important reason, however, for pitching your tent in the open is the matter of health.

Do not put up the tent in a hollow. Water will lodge under it with the first shower. Set it on a little knoll. All this holds good, whether you use an A tent, wall tent, lean to or any other sort of shelter. Once the tent is up in place dig a drain around it exactly under the edge of the canvas, so that all the water will run off the tent into this drain and be carried away. — Peter Johnson in St. Nicholas.

Persian Words Naturalized.
Regarding the Persian language, we all have a few words from that source in our vocabularies, although we may not be aware of our indebtedness. There are about a dozen words in the English dictionary which trace to Persia, the most common being perhaps "orange" (although this was thought by some to be derived from the Latin "aurum"—gold). "Sash," meaning a ribbon or band (the "sash" of a window is the Latin "capasa"). "shawl" and "infanta" are other Persian words which have become thoroughly acclimatized, as have "chess," "caravan," "tilac," "dervish" and "lac," while "emerald" and "indigo," "azure," "bazaar," "jackal," "musk," "paradise" and "scimitar" have also been traced to the same source. — London Opinion.

Baring the Feet at Worship.
In India Hindus and Mussulmans alike wear both sandals and shoes (slippers) and the latter boots also, but the invariable rule is to remove them after entering a private house just when stepping on to the mat or carpet on which the visitor takes his seat. They must be cast off, the right boot or shoe first, before the worshiper enters a temple or mosque, and it is still regarded as an absolute profanation to attempt to enter either fully shod. But the domestic habit arose out of its obvious propriety, and the religious ritual of "the shoes of the faithful" now and for centuries past observed throughout Islam, can be demonstrated to have been dictated by, if indeed it be not derived directly from, the universal social etiquette of the east.

As Usual.
Ended were the gay days of the honeymoon, and the newly married couple had come back, crossing the threshold of their new home as man and wife.

Just inside the doorway the man paused, drew his bride closely to him and whispered: "This is our world, darling. In it we will try to accomplish great things."

He was proved a true prophet by subsequent events.

Within three months they were fighting for the world's championship. — London Telegraph.

Clever Man.
With a sigh she laid down the magazine article upon Daniel O'Connell. "The day of great men," she said, "is gone forever."

"But the day of beautiful women is not," he responded.

She smiled and blushed. "I was only joking," she explained hurriedly.

Won't Give Them an Opening.
"I don't ask people how they are any more."

"Why not?"

"I've decided it is better to take it for granted that they are well than to give them a chance to spend half an hour of my time telling me about their ailments." — Detroit Free Press.

Its Vocabulary.
"That parrot of theirs! Why, it rattles off all of the gossip of the neighborhood!"

"Yes. When it was learning to talk they forgot to take it out of the room the day the sewing society met." — Browning's Magazine.

Waters of the Pacific.
To remove the water of the Pacific ocean it would require the filling of a tank a mile wide, a mile deep and a mile long every day for 440 years.

Just Acquainted.
"Do you know her very well?"

"Not very. I've met her only once or twice and so don't know a thing that's wrong with her." — Detroit Free Press.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.
Indigestion.

The belching, swelling and full feeling so frequently complained of after meals will be cured and prevented, too, by eating acid fruits for dessert. Instead of the usual sweet puddings and pies. Apples, apricots, peaches, pears, oranges and grapes are excellent for this purpose. Pineapples are excellent, too.

The gastric juice (in the stomach) normally contains about 2 per cent of acid. If this is insufficient for any reason of ill health digestion is interfered with. So it will therefore be good to add digestion with acid fruits.

HAISTEN'S PATENT HEATER

SOMETHING NEW—SOMETHING DIFFERENT IN A HEATER.

There is merit in the excellence of construction, material used, beauty of line and symmetry of proportion, together with the beautiful trimming that cannot be found in any other stove.

A Heater Supreme

A heater supreme. It burns any kind of fuel with first-class heating results. Its single draft so built as not to let any cold air get to the fire is the secret.

A super-heating expansion air reservoir and an automatic draft that adjusts itself to the condition of fire make up a heater that is second to none.

(It Burns Even the Smoke)

I have so much faith in this splendid heater that I will place it in your home on 30 days' trial

GRANDE RONDE HORSES WIN

GREAT LIST OF FIRST AND SECONDS COME TO UNION COUNTY.

Grand Champions and Champions Score at Salem Fair—Many Exhibitors Win Money.

Grand championships, championships and ribbons by the hatful were taken away from the state fair at Salem by Grande Ronde valley exhibitors. Always foremost in the winning of prizes, laurels were expected when stockmen began to ship horses to the Salem fair from here, but the success of the venture was more satisfactory than even the most sanguine had dared hope for.

A summary of winners from this valley follows and reflects undeniable credit upon Union county and classifies it as the foremost horsebreeding district of the state:

Swat the Billboard (Farm and Fireside)
Why in the world will farmers lease to advertising concerns the right to erect lines of billboards along railroad rights of way? It is one of the most excusable and unprofitable misadventures of the country. It breaks up the tilling plan of the field, and it leaves a bad taste in the mouth of the railroad travelers.

The farmer who lets his barn be used as a signboard for bills, in consideration of having had paint put on it, advertises himself as thrifless. The man who cuts into a good field in order to get a few dollars from a liver cure or a blend of booze is losing sure money to get what he foolishly regards as easy money.

One of the advantages of owning a farm that thousands of railroad passengers see every day is the possibility that some of them will fancy and want to buy it. If statistics on the subject could be had it would be astonishing that so many sales come this way. Well, the farmer who plastered his land over with circus and patent-medicine propaganda is in effect saying:

"I can't make this land pay—just farming it."

HEIRESS WILL BE A WAR BRIDE

Miss Bourke

A prospective London war bride is Miss Bourke, niece of the wealthy Earl of Mayo, and regarded one of the most beautiful debutantes of British society. She will marry Lieut. John Fortescue of the Coldstream guards.

AMERICAN INVENTOR OF BRITISH "TANK"

BENJAMIN HOLT

Holt invented the caterpillar traction engine, the armored form of which is spreading terror through the German lines on the Somme. The Holt Manufacturing Co. of Peoria, Ill., has sent more than 1000 of Holt's machines to Europe where they are covered with armor plate and mounted with cannon. The United States army has ordered 27 tractors, not armored.
