The Summary

	R	H	E
Boston	6	8	1
Brooklyn	5	10	4

Boston, Oct. 6.—The Boston Red Sox played good to betting odds and won from Brooklyn Robins in the opening game of the World Series today before a tremendous audience. For eight innings it looked like a run-away proposition with Boston an easy winner, but Brooklyn fought out a rally in the ninth that lacked but one in tying the score.

A great shakeup in pitchers was brought about. Ernest Shore had the Brooklynites on his hip up to the ninth and it was necessary for Mays to enter the fray and save Boston. The game ended six to five in Boston's favor.

Janvrin's ninth inning error came near costing the game.

For five innings Shore and Marquard fought out a pitching duel while 40,000 sat spellbound.

Boston Scores First
Janvrin began the third inning for Boston by fanning, but Meyers dropped the third strike and Janvrin ran but was thrown out at first. Outfielder Walker fanned and then came the first big hit of the game when First Baseman Hoblitzel tripled to deep right. He was scored when Lewis shot a double banger to left field, but Lewis was caught off second when Meyers threw to Olson. One run, two hits and no errors.

Brooklyn Ties Score
It was in the fourth inning that Brooklyn tied the score. Casey Stengel, Brooklyn's outfielder, singled and "Buck" Wheat tripled scoring Stengel. Second Baseman Cutshaw flew out to Hooper and Wheat was thrown out at the plate on a wonderful throw from Hooper to Cady. Mowrey went out Janvrin to Hoblitzel. One run, two hits and no errors.

Hooper Starts Again
Hooper opened the fifth inning for Boston by lacing out a double. Janvrin sacrificed being thrown out, Mowrey to Cutshaw. Walker singled and Hooper scored. Hoblitzel was an easy out. Daubert unassisted.

Fifty prominent New York businessmen signed an appeal for reprieve. Signatures included Theodore N. Vail, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. Governor Whitman steadfastly refused a reprieve.

Fire Prevention Taught La Grande

Pulpits and Schools to Inculcate Desire to Apply Safety First Rules—Fire Drills on Program Monday.

From pulpits tomorrow and in school rooms next Monday, La Grande people and pupils will hear the lesson of fire prevention. Monday is fire prevention day and it will be observed rigidly. In the schools every room will clean up, and hear lectures by teachers on how to avoid garret fires and blazes from rubbish, and there will be thoroughgoing fire drills too. School yards will be cleaned up and the general principles of fire prevention will be practiced in its fullest extent.

Handy References Provided.
Appropos to the vital question now before the whole United States, Lucile Haley, librarian at the Public library, has listed books and articles on fire prevention, for ready reference.

"Lessons in fire prevention" is the title of a pamphlet for the use of the public schools, published by the state superintendent of public instruction. This pamphlet may be consulted at the public library.

1233 Students In La Grande Schools

First Month Increase of Enrollment Has Been Marked—Late Harvests Hindered Matriculation.

Twelve hundred and thirty-three pupils were enrolled in La Grande schools last evening when the first month of the school year was completed. Late harvest has retarded enrollments, but even in the face of that, there was a greater increase of new students during the first month of this year, than last; yet the grand total at the end of the first month last year was fully abreast with the total this year.

The enrollment by schools, as compiled by Superintendent McCullough, follows:

Central building	486
Riverside building	252
Greenwood building	259
Total grades	997
High school	236
Total enrollment	1233

Letup in Search For Recruits On

Washington, Oct. 7.—War Secretary Baker has dispensed with national guard recruiting as compulsory, but authorizes commanding officers to discontinue recruiting at their discretion.

What department commanders will do regarding recruiting in Oregon, which embraces this city's station, there is no news of this early. This order probably does not interfere with an order issued yesterday to rush mobilization camp complements of men to the border to take the places of some already there. Captain Clark will likely receive final orders in this regard shortly.

FARM LOAN RATE HAS BEEN FIXED

Washington, Oct. 7.—It is learned the federal Farm Loan has fixed four per cent as interest on farm loan bank bonds. This means farmers patronizing the farm loan banks must pay four and half to five per cent for loans.

GERMAN U-BOAT ESCORTED IN TO NEWPORT NEWS BY AMERICAN U-BOAT

REPORTED POSSIBLY NOT A MERCHANTMAN

Mission, Her Troubles or Anything Else About the Boat Strangely Mysterious—Naval Station Identifies the Boat—Probably Will Intern.

Newport, Oct. 7.—Late tonight it was unofficially announced that the German U-boat carried mails from Heligoland and was armed with guns and torpedo tubes. She expects to depart within two days, it is contended.

Newport, Oct. 7.—A German naval submarine, the U-53, suddenly made its appearance here today.

Being probably a war craft and not a merchantman, it is considered certain the boat will be interned, or go out before a certain time limit and not take on provisions.

The boat entered the harbor this afternoon and was positively identified by the U. S. Naval Training station. It is positively stated she is not a merchantman.

The boat entered the harbor preceded by the United States submarine E-4 but where it was met by that boat is not made known. Her purpose, her troubles and her mission are entirely secret at a late hour in the day.

Candles in Rites Set Fire.

Portland, Oct. 7.—Candles left burning as part of the Yom Kippur rites at the home of H. Maizels, 692 First street, last night while the family was at the synagogue in worship, caused a fire which did slight damage when the breeze blew a lace curtain into contact with the flames.

The candles are a part of the religious services conducted in celebration of the most solemn and important day in the Jewish calendar.

Engines Nos. 4, 22 and 5 and truck No. 2 responded to the alarm, and quickly extinguished the fire.

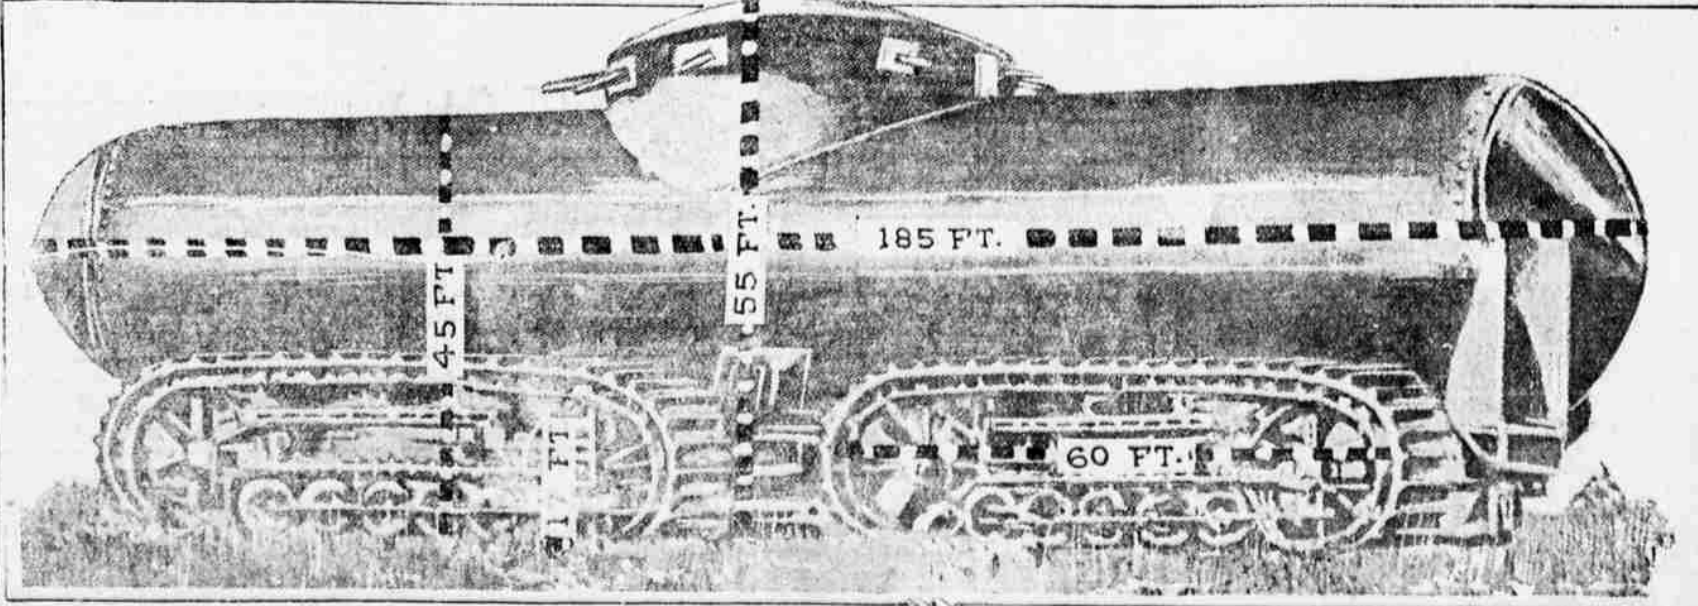

Marines Will Compete.

Washington, October 7.—The Marine Corps Rifle Team will be the only representative of the United States regular services to compete in the National Matches to be held in Jacksonville, Fla., October 20-26.

At least one national guard team and a civilian rifle club team from each state will enter. A battalion of 300 marines will serve as scorers, markers, etc., on the range.

The Marine Corps Rifle Team is being whipped into a high state of efficiency at the Wakefield, (Mass.) rifle range and it's officials are confident that they will again set a top-notch standard in the shooting game.

FIRST ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH OF MIGHTY BRITISH "TANK" WHICH TOYS WITH MODERN TRENCHES.

Here is the first actual photograph of the great British "Tank" to arrive on this side of the Atlantic! The figures showing the dimensions of this monster death engine were placed on the photograph by an artist and emphasize the size of the "Tank". A soldier, standing beside the "Tank" could reach only half way up the caterpillar tread mill. The "Tanks" are made in England from simple farm tractors manufactured in the United States.

The Germans have not, to date found any implement to combat the "Tank".
