ANOTHER RECRUIT SIGNS UP.
 South Carolina Man Enlists and Has Gone to Clackamas.

Allison H. Brown, whose home is in Marion, South Carolina, has enlisted and was last night sent to Clackamas by Recruiting Officer Clark. With stiff demand for men to work at various trades and at common labor, Recruiting Officers are finding it hard to interest young men. The county, and city too, for that matter, has extremely few idle men, and when a man is at work with good pay in sight, recruiting officers have found it difficult to interest him, in that there is no immediate crisis.

"Many don't realize the absolute necessity of a well-organized national guard for future emergencies," said Captain Clark in commenting on enlistments.

Telegraphic orders to stop recruiting for the Second Montana infantry, the 10th squadron of Utah cavalry, have reached the office in La Grande.

UNION COUNTY MAN IS DEAD
 G. L. West Drops Dead at Baker—Well Known in La Grande.

Baker, Oct. 7.—Death came very suddenly yesterday morning about 8:30 o'clock to Guy L. West at his home on Eighth street, after he had returned from the depot, where he had been with Mrs. West to see some friends off on the early morning train. Mr. West, who was in the general merchandise business with D. F. Baker on Center street, intended to stop at the store when they came up from the depot, but as he had complained of not feeling well, his wife persuaded him to go home. Shortly after arriving home he was seized with a fainting spell, Mrs. West immediately hurrying to Dr. Currey's drug store for help. Dr. Currey was at the Ostrum hotel and was hastily summoned, but when he arrived at the house Mr. West was dead, heart trouble being the cause. He had suffered occasional attacks of the same kind, several times quite serious.

Mr. West was a well known young business man who came here from La Grande about two years ago and bought the interest of A. A. Hayden in the business of Baker & Hayden, being associated with the business from that time until his death. He was 37 years of age and a young man who made friends readily and leaves many to sincerely mourn his passing. Besides his wife he is survived by one son, Homer, aged about eight years, and five brothers and sisters—Mrs. M. L. Watts of North Powder, Mrs. H. W. McCool of St. Joseph, Mo., Mrs. R. E. Wiseman of Nebraska and H. C. and H. L. West of Big Sandy, Mont. Deceased was born in Iowa but had been in Oregon for a number of years, being engaged in ranching and other business in Union county. He was married at Summerville in December, 1905.

The funeral services will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Welch & Co. chapel. Announcement is made that friends may view the remains at the undertaking parlors until noon Sunday. The casket will not be opened after the services.
