SQUARE DEAL FOR EASTERN OREGON

If you are in favor of a square deal for the country East of the Cascades you will vote for and work for THE PROPOSED EASTERN OREGON STATE NORMAL SCHOOL AT PENDLETON, OREGON. Oregon has but one Normal School. This school is located at Monmouth and is not able to supply more than TEN PER CENT of the teachers required in the public schools of Oregon. Of the more than six thousand teachers in our public schools, BUT 13 PER CENT are graduates of Normal Schools. It is a matter of simple justice to the country East of the Cascades to establish a Normal School East of the mountains to furnish thoroughly trained teachers for the schools of Eastern Oregon.

TRAINED INSTRUCTORS WANTED

Every resident of Eastern Oregon has a vital interest in the passage of this measure for Eastern Oregon pays HIGH SALARIES to her teachers and is entitled to the services of TRAINED INSTRUCTORS.

ONLY COSTS 4 CENTS PER $1,000

The annual cost of maintenance of the proposed State Normal School amounts to BUT ONE 25TH OF A MILL OR 4 CENTS ON A THOUSAND DOLLARS of taxable property. Isn't it worth this to you to have your children trained to become USEFUL AND PRODUCTIVE citizens?

STRONG ENDORSEMENT

J. A. Churchill, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, voices the sentiment of the educators of the state when he says:

"Oregon's greatest need for its rural schools is the teacher who has had full preparation to do her work. Such preparation can best come through Normal School training.

"I trust that the voters of the state will assist in raising the standard of our schools by establishing a State Normal School at Pendleton. The location is central, the interest of the people of Pendleton in education most excellent, and the large number of pupils in the public schools will give ample opportunity to all students to get the amount of teaching practice required in a standard normal school."

The educators of the State insist that Standard Normal Schools be located in towns of 5000 population or more and having ENOUGH GRADE PUPILS FOR TEACHER PRACTICE.

BE LOYAL AND VOTE RIGHT

Show your loyalty to the best interests of Eastern Oregon and of the whole state by working for this measure and by voting YES FOR NO. 308. By voting YES for No. 308 you will help to GIVE TO THE SCHOOL CHILDREN OF OREGON THE SAME ADVANTAGES ENJOYED BY THE SCHOOL CHILDREN OF OUR NEIGHBORING STATES.

"THE NO-GOOD GUY"—ARCADE

William Collier Scores in Triangle-Ince Comedy Review by Thomas C. Kennedy in Motography.

"The No-Good Guy" which is shown at the Arcade Wednesday and Thursday brings William Collier to the screen in a way that one has a right to expect of a comedian who has long held a conspicuous place among the foremost laughmakers of the stage. Aided by a story that serves his purposes well and direction equally strong in this respect, Collier has no difficulty in keeping the spectator amused through five reels of film containing innumerable comical incidents.

Mr. Collier is Jimmy Coghlan, who is no good. The title introducing Walter Edwards as Jimmy's valet states that Hawkins has the hardest job in the world, and when Jimmy comes home from the party that night one appreciates the truth of those words. With a rich uncle to supply him with money for really gay parties and a chronic thirst, Jimmy is notorious from one end of the city to the other.

In all he does Mr. Collier is funny. His work registers and, looked at from all viewpoints, he is one of the most amusing good-for-nothings one could desire. The business is remarkably good. Director Walter Edwards used everything within the grasp of the producer of motion pictures, slapstick and trick photography included, in staging C. Gardner Sullivan's story. In no instance is there recourse to business or incident that would tend to make the actions of a man who takes entirely too much drink anything but comical.

Enid Markey plays opposite Mr. Collier. Miss Markey heads a cast including Charles K. French, Robert Kortman, J. Frank Burke and Walter Edwards, all of whom do good work.

SHERRY'S

Sherry's Announcement.

She had never known a mother's love or love of any type for the matter of that. Her father had raised her a botanist, like himself, and she had traveled the world over. When this girl met a flirtatious young man who had spent his young life making love to every pretty girl who would listen to him, their widely diverging natures awoke a strangely irresistible appeal. Turbulent nature then took a hand, lightning struck the flirtatious youth and the scientific maiden brought him back to life under the most unusual circumstances imaginable. These points demonstrate only a few of the unusual elements that conspire to make "Little Eve Edgerton" one of the classics of photoplaying—an unusual subject among the remarkable series of Bluebirds that have become so popular with patrons of the Sherry theatre, where Ella Hall and Herbert Rawlinson will appear for the last time today in this picture-play made from Eleanor H. Abbott's serial originally printed in Everybody's Magazine.

Eleanor Abbott is the author of "Molly Make-Believe."

HIDDEN MONEY LOST IN FIRE

Huntington, Oct. 11.—A fire which originated from some unknown cause, probably in the attic, entirely destroyed a six room dwelling house about 8 o'clock Thursday evening. The house was occupied by Charles Ballew. The household goods and furniture, together with a suit case which contained $4,225 in currency and valuable papers, belonging to his father, J. F. Ballew of Arkansas, who is here on a visit, as an intending purchaser of a cattle ranch, were destroyed. There was no insurance on the household goods and furniture which will probably total a loss of about $500. The fire consumed everything so rapidly that all of the members of the family, who were nearby doing chores, were unable to extinguish the flames nor to save any of their belongings. The residence was owned by C. H. Libby and located on his hog ranch about a mile from town.

Whenever I notice my kidneys are not acting as they should, I take Doan's Kidney Pills for a few days and they never fail to relieve the trouble. I could not recommend anything their equal."
