New York, Oct. 13.—Aside from the interest which always centers in the activities of Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Dartmouth and the other top-notch football teams of the east, Illinois university and Colgate university will hold the attention of football followers when they meet tomorrow afternoon at Urbana, Ill. This will be the first meeting of Illinois and the husky easterners, who have been considered for some time one of the east's most powerful reasons why it should be counted first in football.
Last year Colgate went through the season with only one defeat. In fact, the team was not scored upon save in its final game, with Cornell, which it lost by a top-heavy score. The Army and Yale teams were two of its victims. Illinois split the honor of being big nine champions last year with Wisconsin, so the east and west will be sending two of the most powerful teams against each other. Lehigh, which hasn't done anything remarkable so far, will be Yale's opponent tomorrow, and Harvard will battle a southern team, North Carolina. Cornell has Williams for its entertainment at Ithaca, and Princeton will go into what probably will be the hardest fought game of the afternoon when it tackles Tufts at Princeton. Notre Dame, another high standing team in the west, will battle the Haskell Indians at South Bend and Nebraska will tackle the Kansas Aggies at Lincoln.

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear

The Pilgrim
So prone
Was he to find Some good in all Mankind;
So quick
To stop and heed
The cry of those In need;
And so
Disposed to say Nothing to mar
One's day,
That heaven,
With love abrim,
Did not seem strange
To him,

Christian Herald.

When You Take Cold.
With the average man a cold is a serious matter and should not be trifled with, as some of the most dangerous diseases start with a common
