SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1916.

And Election Day only seventeen days away. Lots of things can happen in ten days.

These are the days that try the candidates' souls.

MRS. HANLEY'S VISIT.

Mrs. E. B. Hanley, of Medford, should be well received when she visits La Grande Monday. She is coming on a political mission. Irrespective of politics, she is one of Oregon's prominent women, a social leader in Medford, a woman of brilliance and charm and she should be given the welcome that her position and personality entitle her.

ON HECKLING.

We do not approve of the heckling that has been introduced into the present campaign.

We did not approve of the heckling of the Hughes women in Portland, nor do we approve of the women's party interfering with the Wilson demonstration in Chicago.

Political parties are entitled to make their parades, to hold their meetings and without interference or annoyance from rowdies.

Political spirit may run high at times but nothing is to be gained by rowdiness.

Try to be as nice to the defeated candidate after election as you are now.

ADVICE TO CANDIDATES.

A little advice to candidates:

It's a wise candidate who knows his own voters. The early and late hustler gets the votes.

Many candidates are called but few are chosen.

Kissing babies, shaking hands and patting voters on the back are not forbidden under the corrupt practices act.

If a candidate read the corrupt practices act, he would be convinced the safest thing to do would be to remain at home.

UNKIND.

A headline in a New York paper says: "Roosevelt Dodges Glare of Publicity" and a newspaper paragrapher is so unkind as to say: "Read that to a herd of wild asses in farthest India and they will laugh themselves to death."

TODAY'S NEWS TODAY.

People in this vicinity who do not take the Observer do not get today's news today.

Glance at the important news headings in yesterday's Observer:

A "NEST EGG"

Misfortune is liable to overtake you in money matters. Then it is that a good sized "Nest Egg" in the Bank comes in "powerful handy."

Over and over again have we seen comforting relief come to those who had accumulated a fund in this bank.

If you haven't started an account, now is the time to do it.

In seasons of prosperity, place a part of your income in our bank. Some day this fund may carry you over a rough and rocky road.

ALLIES TOOK. YAEGER FOUND GUILTY. MUST ENTER CELL. CANADIANS TO STRIKE SOON. WHEAT GOES TO A RECORD. BREMEN IS SURELY LOST. ESCAPED CONVICTS TAKEN. BIG MEXICAN BATTLE RAGING. MR. HUGHES NEEDS A REST.

These are just a few of the interesting news dispatches printed yesterday. The Observer aims to keep the community in touch with the news of the world while it is still fresh and interesting.

We believe its aim is filled in a way that makes the paper welcome in the homes of its readers.

THE BEST TEST

Years ago this La Grande resident told of good results from using Doan's Kidney Pills. Now Mrs. S. E. Lyman of 1308 Monroe St., confirms the former statement—says there has been no return of the trouble. Can La Grande people ask for more convincing testimony?

Mrs. Lyman says: "I can in all earnestness recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used them on several occasions with the best of results for backaches and kidney trouble. I have never found anything that acts so quickly and surely on the system and regulates the kidney action like Doan's Kidney Pills. I truly believe they are the best of all kidney medicines." (Statement given November 23, 1912.)

On May 26, 1916, Mrs. Lyman said: "My estimation of Doan's Kidney Pills hasn't changed in the least since I gave my recommendation four years ago. The lasting cure I got is proof that they are a reliable medicine."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Lyman has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y. Adv.

Notice of Impounded Stock.

Notice is hereby given to all concerned that the undersigned, chief of police of the City of La Grande, Oregon, has taken up and impounded in the city pound, the following described stock: One yearling red heifer, some white spots on belly, no visible brand; one two-year-old brockled-faced steer, crop off left ear.

That the said animals if not reclaimed by the owner or owners thereof within ten days from the date of this notice, will be advertised and sold at public sale in accordance with the charter and ordinance of said city. The owner or owners of said stock may at any time before sale thereof, reclaim the same by paying the cost of taking up, keeping and advertising said animal.

Dated at La Grande, Oregon, this the 28th day of October, 1916.

J. C. ARDREY, Chief of Police. Adv. 10-21-tf.

"The Lion and the Mouse" Monday.

The people of La Grande will be given a treat in the way of a first-class dramatic production at the Arcade theatre Monday night when "The Lion and the Mouse" will be presented by the National Stock company, which for some weeks has been playing in Eastern Oregon. Well-known local people, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Devere are at the head of this company, and their ability is well known as they have directed a number of first-class plays for the local Elks.

This is a strong company of nine people, and each member is shown at their best in this well-known play. Miss Maynon Steward as the "Mouse" in this play is shown at her best. Mr. Selby Roach will appear in the part of the "Lion". The other members of the cast are as follows: Misses Castleman and Roberts; Messrs. C. M. Devere, Prescott Brison, Billie Lee, W. F. Nuffer, F. D. Long, and others.

The company has recently been playing the towns on the Wallowa branch and the business has increased with each performance. Consequently they expect to play there again after playing here Monday night. It is the intention to alternate between the towns in Wallowa and La Grande.

SOCIETY NEWS.

The next afternoon division of the Kaffee Klatch will be at the home of Mrs. C. H. Conkey, the coming Friday afternoon.

Mid Hallowe'en settings that embraced all the odds and ends of autumnal colors and articles, taking up available corners and nooks, the Kaffee Klatch met last evening at the M. B. Donohue home, with Mr. and Mrs. Donohue and Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Robinson as hostesses. Nine tables were engaged in play, and when the enjoyable evening was over Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp, a special guest for the evening, was awarded first prize among the ladies and Vincent Palmer
