POLITICAL ISSUES REVIEWED

SAYS SWITCHMEN DISLIKE LAW.

By GEORGE C. HILL. (Written for the Republican National Committee.)

New York, Oct. 21.—(United Press)—Flat rejection of the Adamson bill is being seriously considered by the railway switchmen in the Chicago yards. These men now have a 10-hour day, but a provision of their contract regarding the lunch hour results in their generally being paid for 11 hours. The railways are discussing the advisability of installing three 8-hour shifts. This would take, generally speaking, three hours off of the men's day and they seriously object to such a curtailment of their income, especially with the cost of living increasing by leaps and bounds. Switching foremen gets 40-cents an hour. Theoretically they have a 10-hour day, but as has been said, in practice they are usually paid for 11 hours work, and make $4.40 a day. Under the three 8-hour shift system, they will get only $3.20 a day, and the difference makes a pretty serious hole in a man's income, especially if he has a family to support.

Consequently the switchmen, who all along were willing to submit their demand for increased wages to arbitration, seriously contemplate flat rejection of the Adamson bill on the ground that it is inimical, instead of helpful, to labor. There is, of course, some question as to whether, Congress having given statutory force to the Adamson bill with its so-called 8-hour provision, the switchmen can reject its provisions and procure arbitration of their demand for increased wages, and that question is now being investigated by their leaders.

More and more are railway men coming to wonder if President Wilson did not hand them a gold brick in his uncontrollable desire to gain the labor vote and promote his political fortunes by butting in to the controversy between the railways and their employes, or at least the 20 per cent of them who are members of the four brotherhoods.

PROGRESSIVE HONOR AT STAKE

By GEORGE CREEL. (Written for The Democratic National Committee.)

New York, Oct. 21.—(United Press)—In this election nothing is so much at stake as the honor and self-respect of the men and women who made up the Progressive party. They banded in the name of humanity, raised the standard of social justice, and vowed their lives to the defeat of the sinister figures in control of the Republican party.

What is the situation today? Roosevelt hobnobs with Taft and Root and Cannon, and Perkins, Robbins and Everett Colby sit in councils with Penrose, Crane and Hitchcock. Behind Hughes is Wall street, the German-American Alliance, child labor exploiters, reactionary employers and every Tory influence that hopes to restore the days of Hannaism. Search through the Republican platform, line for line, and not a single reference to Social Justice will be found. Read the speeches of Hughes and it will be seen that it is the humane legislation of President Wilson that he attacks most bitterly.

Watch Hughes as he journeys from state to state. In not one has he failed to consort exclusively with the bosses and reactionaries against whom the Progressives fought in 1912, even going so far as to ignore Hiram Johnson in California on the eve of an election. In his repeated declaration, "I desire a reunited party" he betrays utter inability to grasp Progressivism as a spiritual revolt, viewing it as nothing more than the expression of disgruntled factionalism.

The Progressive who goes back to the Republican party must crawl on his knees. He must recant his "lunatic heresies." He must swallow his condemnation of Cannon, Root, Hemenway, Crane and Penrose, and acclaim them wise, good and all-powerful. In plain words, he must confess that he lied in 1912; in plainer action he must admit that he is not a free American citizen, but chattel to be bound and delivered whenever Theodore Roosevelt finds a price that suits.

Candidates' Announcements.

For Assessor.

I have been regularly nominated on the Democratic ticket for County Assessor. If I am elected I pledge myself to a fair assessment. I believe the burdens should be fairly divided. I will devote my entire time to the affairs of the office, believing that the salary is sufficient to pay for it. I respectfully solicit the support of the voters at the coming election. Pd. Adv. W. A. MAXWELL.

Joint Senator Union and Wallowa Counties.

To the voters of Union and Wallowa counties: I am the Republican nominee for joint senator for Union and Wallowa counties and respectfully solicit your votes on Nov. 7. If elected I will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and point to my record in two sessions of the state legislature as a pledge for my future conduct. —Paid Adv. tf. ED E. KIDDLE.

For County Assessor.

I am now serving my first term as County Assessor. During that time I have endeavored to conduct the affairs of the office, as economically as consistent with good service, with the especial view of assessing all property on an absolutely fair basis, and believe the records of the office will show good results along the line of equalizing assessments, as well as the placing of these assessments, and extending the different levies of the several taxing districts in the tax rolls, in a neat and businesslike manner.

I respectfully invite the voters to get first hand information, regarding the efficiency of the work accomplished in this office. On this record, I ask for re-election at your hands on Nov. 7th and if elected pledge continuation along these lines. —Paid Adv. tf. U. G. COUCH.

To the voters of Union and Wallowa counties: I am the Republican nominee for joint representative of union and Wallowa counties. I favor Good Roads without bonding, Fewer and Simpler Laws, a dollar's worth of service for every dollar expended. I respectfully solicit your support. My number on the ballot is 50. —Paid Adv. FRED S. ASHLEY. 10-20-2t

MODART CORSETS

Front Laced

"A FINE FORM IS BETTER THAN A FINE FACE"

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

After all, the acme of beauty is the expression, the life, the freedom, of a beautiful figure.

Ease and comfort of motion—unconsciousness of any restraint—permit this freedom, this joy and zest which gives true expression to beauty.

It is along these lines—taking health and joy in life as a basis—that are designed—and every wearer stands as fine proof of its success.

MODART Corsets
