SCENE FROM "THE UNATTAINABLE" SHERRY'S THEATRE.

DOROTHY DAVENPORT
"THE UNATTAINABLE"

Because Bessie Gale, an actress, made sure to protect herself from intrigue, she was known as "the unattainable" among the fast set that spends its leisure hours in pursuit of pleasure along New York's "Great White Way." Because she was left, accidentally, stranded among the foothills of the Sierra Nevada mountains, while on a theatrical tour, she met and married a real man, albeit he was a sheep herder. Because there came to Bessie the longing to see once more the "bright lights," and because she listened to the call of the stage, Bluebird Photoplays have been provided with an excellent scenario for "The Unattainable," the feature to be exhibited at the Sherry theatre today and tomorrow with Dorothy Davenport and Emory Johnson leading a splendid company in an engaging entertainment. Pictorially the work is made beautiful by the natural scenery of the Sierras and expensive "sets" depicting the haunts of the millionaires in New York. Its dramatic artistry is assured in the efforts of a carefully selected company, chosen to interpret the various roles because of the adaptability of the artists to the requisite impersonations.

ARCADE

"Rolling Stones" at Arcade Tonight. Dangling over the East River from the roadway of a bridge is not Owen Moore's idea of a good time, but that is what he did for some of the scenes in the Famous Players adaptation of Edgar Selwyn's celebrated comedy-drama "Rolling Stones" in which he is co-starring at the Arcade Theatre with Marguerite Courtot. Moore decides to commit suicide and then as suddenly decides to postpone the festivities—then the complications begin. Remember this thrilling comedy-drama will be shown only one night—tonight.

Wm. S. Hart in Play of the Great Northwest.

William S. Hart, admittedly America's premier interpreter of rugged frontier types, has the leading role in "The Primal Lure," Triangle-Ince production of Vingie E. Roe's celebrated novel of the same name, adapted for the screen by J. G. Hawks, of the Ince staff. It will be seen at the Arcade Theatre Wednesday and Thursday. "The Primal Lure" is an absorbing drama of life in the great Canadian Northwest. It recites the stirring romance of Angus McConnell, a young Scotch-Canadian factor, and Lois Le Moyne, daughter of a French settler at the post. It is replete with thrilling encounters with the Blackfoot Indians, and teems with a love interest rivaled in its appeal only by the picturesque beauty of the story's background.

Hart has the role of McConnell and he has invested it, it is declared, with rare power. While the part is unlike that of "Blaze" Tracy in "Hell's Hinges" or Steve Denton in "The Aryan," it has provided the noted actor with the same opportunities for forceful characterization.

A small, though strong, cast appears in support of Hart. It includes Margery Wilson as Lois Le Moyne and Robert McKim as Richard Sylvester, the villain of the story. The production was directed by Hart, under the Ince supervision.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless out of the ear are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sold by Druggists. The F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

"Goodnight Corns! We Use 'Gets-It!'"

3 Drops in 2 Seconds. That's All "GETS-IT" Does the Best. Never Fails.

"Really, I never could see how some few people use the most difficult and painful way they can find to get rid of corns. They'll wrap their toes up with bandages into a package that fills their shoes full of feet and makes corns so painful they've got to walk sideways and wrinkle up their faces. Or they use salves that eat right into the toe and make it raw and sore, or they'll use plasters that make the corns bulge, or pick and gouge at their corns and make the toes bleed. Funny, isn't it? "GETS-IT" is the simple, modern wonder for corns. Just put 3 drops on. It dries instantly. No pain, fuss or trouble. The corn, callus or wart loosens and comes off. Millions use nothing else. "GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by B. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.
