Notes From Union

A paper was circulated in the city this week forming the Woodrow Wilson league, and the same was signed quite generously by those who favor the present executive chief of the nation.

The sale held by the Executors of the Shackhamer estate Saturday last at Union, was well attended and reasonably successful as to prices received.

NIGHT SCHOOLS COMMENCED
Shorthand Course First To Be Taken Up—English May Follow.

The educational department of the Y. M. C. A. opened its season's work last evening with the class in shorthand in session under the direction of E. P. Epling. It is the purpose of the department to hold classes in all subjects, providing that a reasonable number of students enroll in each course. Several applications have been made for an elementary English course and a tentative arrangement has been made for a very competent teacher for this course. All persons interested in this matter and are desirous of increasing their efficiency in their particular line are invited to call at the Y. M. C. A. building for information regarding the classes.
