Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman and her husband who appear in mezzo-soprano-dramatic and violin recital at the Methodist church Monday evening.

Under the auspices of the Methodist choir the music-loving folk of La Grande are to have a rare treat in the near future, Oct. 30, when Pauline Miller Chapman, mezzo contralto, will give a concert in the Methodist Episcopal church. Through the influence and friendship of Mrs. J. P. Graham Mrs. Chapman has been persuaded to appear on the above date and it is needless to say she will sing before a capacity house. Whenever this noted singer has appeared crowds throng to hear her and go away charmed with the quality and coloring of this wonderful mezzo contralto.

After graduating from Chicago conservatory she studied with Signor Marescalchi, Max Heinrich and afterwards she studied abroad with Etelka Gersten and with that master of voice teachers of Berlin Lamperti. Don't forget the date, Oct. 30th, and reserve it. She will be accompanied by her husband who is a noted artist on the violin, having studied with Bernhard Listeman and Tivalar Gaches.

It is seldom that such a rare treat is given to the people of La Grande and the committee in charge feel there will be an interest taken.

The order in which the numbers to be given at the Miss Carney benefit at the L. D. S. tabernacle tonight will follow each other, has been determined. The Chautauqua association which fathered the benefit, and to which movement there was ready responses by musicians of the city, deems this a splendid opportunity for La Grande people to honor one of their own, who, though unfortunate physically, is gifted musically. The money accruing from the concert tonight will be used to defray the expense of sending Miss Carney, the blind girl, to Portland for schooling in piano and singing. The program begins at 8:45 and the public is invited.

Each number will be announced by the performer, and will be given in the following order: Piano solo, Miss Young; group of songs, Miss Carney; reading, Mrs. Metcalf; baritone solo, George Birnie; violin solo, Cornelia Barker Carse; group of songs, Mrs. A. L. Richardson; selection on cornet, Mr. Loney; group of songs, Miss Carney.

Tuesday evening the Women of Woodcraft entertained the Woodmen of the World at a Halloween social in Eagles' hall. A splendid program of vocal and instrumental music and recitations was carried out. The Circle members then put on a drill forming their initials W. O. W. and other figures, after which all retired to the banquet room where delicious refreshments were served. The hall and dining room were beautifully decorated for the occasion. Halloween suggestions prevailed.

Friday afternoon Mrs. C. J. Richards entertained at her home for Mrs. Eaton who is soon to leave La Grande. The guests were members of the Woodmen of Woodcraft circle of which order Mrs. Eaton is also a member. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in doing fancy work and social conversation. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Evelyn Underwood and Miss Marjory Logan were charming young hostesses last evening at a Halloween party to which they invited in several of their many friends. The guests were first entertained at the home of Miss Underwood, with games and Halloween fortune telling. At the correct hour they went to the Logan home for refreshments. Among those present were:

Edith Pierce, May Dunn, Bertha Berger, Genevieve Hanna, Dorothy Krause, Harriet Casey, Dorothy Brown, Constance Hall, Dorothy Scroggin, Wilma Wade, Merle George, Marcella Berry, Dorothy Casey, Mabel Langley, Mary Fitzgerald, Irma Underwood, Evelyn Underwood and Marjory Logan.

One of the most delightful of a long string of exceptionally elaborate parties of the fall, was that given Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of District Attorney and Mrs. Colon Eberhard. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Eberhard and Mrs. John Theisen entertained at auction bridge, 62 ladies being present. Autumn colors and materials were handsomely used in the decorations which were the same for both the afternoon and evening features. At bridge during the afternoon Mrs. E. Polack scored highest and Mrs. Grace Molitor was second highest. A two-course luncheon was served by the hostesses to the afternoon gathering.

In the evening men and women to the number of 56 were again entertained, Mr. and Mrs. Eberhard and Mr. and Mrs. Theisen being hosts. Once again the hospitality of host and hostess was unstinted and the guests enjoyed themselves at bridge until a late hour when refreshments were served. Dr. Harry M. Bouvey scored highest and W. H. Bohnenkamp scored second high.

A quasi-social event that attracted lovers of theatricals, took place Monday evening when a troupe of dramatists including Mr. and Mrs. C. M. DeVere of this city, presented "The Lion and the Mouse." It was a fine attraction, well played and well interpreted. As we recall it the present company has it over the troupe that played the production when it first came out and with nationally famous interpreters in the roles.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oct. 28.—(Special)—The sororities have been busy selecting their pledges from the abundance of good material that appeared on the campus this fall. The various organizations have pledged students from all parts of Oregon and from several other states. The two hall clubs, B. T. B. and A. D. A., have also made several additions to their membership. The Alpha Chi, in announcing a big list of pledges, include Ruma Bacon and Charlotte Jones of La Grande. The B. T. B. announces Minna Ash also of La Grande, as a pledge.

The party which attended the "Lion and the Mouse" Monday night and occupied "the Royal Box" gave an informal "dutch treat" party last night at the residence of Mrs. Bruce Dennis. All wore grotesque costumes—some of them appropriate to ancient history. Those present were: Mrs. Wm. Bollins, Miss Bollins, Mrs. Wm. Ash, Mrs. Molitor, Mrs. C. H. Finn, Mrs. Carse, Mrs. R. Newlin, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. M. Ritchie, Mrs. O'Connell, Mrs. Bruce Dennis, Mrs. L. A. McAllister, Mrs. Clarke Leiter, Miss Mary Sommers, Miss Fanny Sommers, Mrs. Scanton.

Mrs. and Mrs. Colon R. Eberhard entertained Mrs. E. B. Hanley and Mrs. Bert Anderson, both of Medford, and Miss Leone Cass Baer, of the Portland Oregonian, at supper after

The admission will be 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children.

The following is one of many similar endorsements:

The Mauer Sisters certainly made a big hit with our audience last evening as was evidenced by the record-breaking number of encores called for. They were most enthusiastically received by our patrons and the sentiment seemed to be quite generally prevalent that they were the best entertainers of the season. In handling their various instruments the girls proved themselves artists and their whole performance was characterized by vivacity and good nature that completely captivated their audience. We hope to have the Mauers with us again.—E. R. Mosher, State Normal, Dillon, Mont.

Preliminary to the wedding, the date of which is not made public, friends gathered at the home of Mrs. J. A. Miss Mires is soon to be married to Burl (Dutch) Conley, son of the pioneer wheat baron A. B. Conley. The shower was in the nature of a miscellany and the evening was greatly enjoyed. Son and daughter of two of the wealthiest families in the valley, the groom and bride-elect are well known both at Cove and La Grande. It is rumored the wedding will take place shortly.

Those present to enjoy the evening and congratulate the bride-elect were: Mrs. Elmer Mires, Mrs. Herb Mires, Mrs. Walter Mires, Mrs. L. A. Smith, Mrs. C. A. Smith, Mrs. Ada Clark; Miss Rhoda Price, Miss Delta Strong, Miss Alice Wilson, Mrs. Guy Garns, Mrs. Ada Simmons, Buela and Jean Smith, Mrs. Tuck Conley and Miss Stella Conley.

COMING SOON CIVILIZATION

Why Vote Pendleton $125,000

for something we already possess—a State Normal School plant in Eastern Oregon?

Why vote an annual tax of one-twenty-fifth of a mill for a Pendleton Normal when one-fortieth of a mill would provide ample maintenance for the Weston Normal?

Do you want to be out of pocket $325,000 in ten years? This is the approximate sum that a Pendleton Normal would cost over and above the cost of the Weston Normal, allowing for a nominal increase in state valuations.

Every man, woman and child in Oregon is annually taxed $30, according to A. H. Harris, a Portland writer. Taxes for all purposes in 1916 reached the enormous total of $22,000,920.94. Schools alone cost $7,000,000. Why toss tax money away by granting Pendleton's absurd demands?

Why Not Reopen the Weston Plant?

It's ready for use and consists of four buildings and ten acres of ground. It has been recently inspected and approved by such prominent architects as Beezer Bros. of Seattle and Osterman & Siebert of Walla Walla. Beezer Bros. say that $2000 properly expended on the principal building would bring it to an "almost perfect condition." These substantial taxpayers, officials and men of affairs denounce the Pendleton scheme as one of "extravagant folly."

J. M. Banister, Mayor of Weston; Homer I. Watts, Mayor of Athena; B. B. Richards, Recorder of Athena; H. A. Barrett, Merchant, Athena; C. A. Barrett, State Senator, Athena; H. B. Lee, ex-County Commissioner, Milton; J. F. Slover, Merchant, Freewater; C. D. Hobbs, Mayor of Milton; H. L. Frazier, ex-County Comm'r. Milton.

Why did not Pendleton confine her bill to a normal school proposition? Why does she seek to "validate" institutions that are firmly and lawfully established? Is it not clear that this is a vote-catching device? Isn't it "log-rolling" of the rankest variety?

And finally, would you care to send your children to a town impregnated with Round-Up atmosphere? Isn't it a fact that a great Round-Up town is for that very reason a poor state school town? Would you want your children to carouse, dance and gamble in Happy Canyon or to even witness its wanton revelry?

Come In And Let Me Tell You About My New Farm Loan

A 20 Year Amortized Rural Credit Loan No Commission No Renewals

TO UNION COUNTY FARMERS:-

For several years I have been working and planning for easier money to loan on good old Grand Ronde farm lands.

Finally I have arranged with one of the largest loaning companies (a company that has $85,000,000 loaned to the farmers of the West) for a real Rural Credit loan based on a 20-year amortized plan. 20 equal payments of but little more than current interest pays off your entire debt.

You pay no commissions, choose your own date of payment and pay at your own bank. You can pay any amount of your loan at any time. This plan figures you a saving of nearly 3 per cent over the usual farm loan made heretofore in this county. If interested call and let me explain fully.
