

POLITICIANS ARE WARNED

Portland, Oct. 28.—(Special)—With election ten days away, how will Oregon vote for President?

Just now State Chairman Charles McNary of the Republican Central committee and Sam. White of the Democratic committee are getting ready to unsling their typewriters into action and to issue a broadside of figures which will roar like a 42-centimeter gun.

McNary claims Oregon for Hughes by 30,000. In this he is applauded by David M. Dunne, the treasurer of the first moneyless campaign ever waged by the Republicans in Oregon, Ralph E. Williams, Republican National chairman, and Thomas B. Neuhausen, vice-chairman and the real man behind the Republican campaign. Sam White is hovering around wondering whether to claim Oregon for Wilson by 10,000 or 15,000. Postmaster Myers is for the latter figure, Milt Miller believes 10,000 would be more dignified, while Judge Thomas C. Burke contends that he would simply announce a "land-slide" and leave the figures go until November 8.

The fact is both sides are worried. How will the women vote? How far will the "He kept us out of war" slogan carry?

Both sides are making a strenuous effort to get the women's votes.

Col. C. E. S. Wood is leading a bevy of femininity into daily pink teas and lining them up for Wilson, ably assisted by Colonel "Bill" Hanley, who has abandoned "Teddy" Roosevelt to follow Woodrow.

Colonel Piper of The Oregonian and Tom Neuhausen are holding daily conferences with the women of the Hughes' Alliance, but so far the Republicans have found no one to rival the eloquence of Col. Wood or his whiskers. Mr. Neuhausen did make one ten strike in finding Mrs. E. B. Hanley, of Medford, who, has developed into a lightning campaigner.

The old guard of both parties are complaining. They have walked the streets and rode up and down elevators trying to locate the sack. The only real money raised in the campaign was by The Journal.

Colonel Dunne swears his sack is busted and Ralph Williams says he is spending his own money in the campaign. The boys say they can't even get a cigar.

"The truth is the good old days of Mark Hanna are gone," said one old rounder. "Politics are getting entirely too blanked pure."

The fact is early in the game the Republican leaders commenced writing and wiring the National committee and telling them that Oregon's five votes were safe for Hughes. The result was the National committee took Oregon's appropriation and sent it to the doubtful states. And now they hate to send up a wall and admit that Oregon is really in the doubtful column.

Portland is very likely to vote for Wilson. It will take the rest of the state to pull Portland out of the hole.

Congressman McArthur is having the fight of his life. The Oregonian is very much worried over his chances and is trying to boost up Jeffrey, the Democratic candidate. The Journal is ignoring Jeffrey and giving Lafferty, who is supporting Wilson, publicity. It's a funny mess. McArthur is carrying the weight of his vote against the Adamson bill and also the emity of the dries. At that he may pull through, as the people are tired of changing horses all the time while crossing streams, and McArthur really has done very well as a freshman in the halls of Congress.

VOTE

57 X Rodney J. Kitchen, Republican-Progressive Candidate for District Attorney for Union County

I was born in Porter County, Indiana. Graduated from the high school at Valparaiso in said county and in the university from the scientific, classic and law departments. Admitted to practice in the Circuit, United States and Supreme courts of Indiana in 1899 and have practiced continuously since, two years of which I was prosecuting attorney in Indiana. I was admitted to the Supreme court of Oregon in 1906. I am married and have three children. Am a tax payer of Union county. Have resided in Eastern Oregon over ten years and in Union county the past six years.

I stand for a strict enforcement of all criminal laws and an economical administration of all county business. To those who do not know me personally, I court a thorough investigation of my ability as a lawyer as well as my past and present record as a public or private citizen. I am not sending out literature written by myself telling of my superior qualifications but am willing to let the people pass upon my fitness for this office.

My home paper commenting on my nomination says: "Kitchen was born and raised in Porter county, Indiana. He graduated from the Valparaiso high school and also from the scientific, classic and law departments of the university. He was chosen class orator on the two latter occasions. He practiced law here for a few years and at one time was prosecuting attorney. His ability is known and respected throughout Porter county."—Messenger.

If elected to this office, I will assume my duties without having made any promise to any person, firm or corporation, except to do my full duty. As it is impossible to see each voter personally, I take this means of soliciting your support at the November election, which will be greatly appreciated.

RODNEY J. KITCHEN.

For County Assessor.

I am now serving my first term as County Assessor. During that time I have endeavored to conduct the affairs of the office, as economically as consistent with good service, with the especial view of assessing all property on an absolutely fair basis, and believe the records of the office will show good results along the line of equalizing assessments, as well as the placing of these assessments, and extending the different levies of the several taxing districts in the tax rolls, in a neat and businesslike manner.

I respectfully invite the voters to get first hand information, regarding the efficiency of the work accomplished in this office. On this record, I ask for re-election at your hands on Nov. 7th and if elected pledge continuation along these lines.

—Paid Adv. tf. U. G. COUCH.
