"A Time of Plenty"

The time to save is when you have.

This holds good with money as well as with other property. War times, and hard times do not worry people with a bank account, like those who have made no preparation for the days to come. Our bank is the place to start an account and be prepared for times of need.

Our operations are conservative and at all times keep the interest of our customers in mind.

A. D. Smith, of the American Type Founders Co., paid the Observer a pleasant call on business. Mr. Smith knows Rex Lammpan and a lot of the newspaper boys in Portland.

Fred Stanley, of Portland, who at one time lived at Perry where he was interested in the Grande Ronde Lumber company, was a business visitor in La Grande last night, calling on old friends the meanwhile. He wore a Hughes button and said conditions generally look good for the Republican party.

PERSONAL MENTION

J. C. Hughes is on a business trip to Portland.

J. E. Lawrence is spending a few days in Portland.

A. B. Eaton, the Union philanthropist, was a visitor in La Grande this morning.

John Radd, field secretary for boys for the Y. M. C. A. of Oregon and Idaho, was in La Grande last night on his way to Wallowa county in the interest of the boys' conference soon to meet in Baker.
