Twenty-five little tots, dressed in grotesque and hobgoblin garb, were guests Hallowe'en night of Mrs. T. A. McKinstry at her Fourth street home. The evening was spent in playing children's games and until 9 o'clock fun and frivolity ran rife. Refreshments were served. Handsome prizes were awarded for various games and Mrs. McKinstry was pronounced a charming hostess.

Last Monday evening Mrs. Thomas A. McKinstry and Mrs. A. J. Van Valkenburg entertained guests for seven tables at cards at one of the most unique affairs of Hallowe'en week. The commodious basement of the McKinstry home was decorated most lavishly in Hallowe'en colors and the guests added a lustre of color by coming in masquerade costumes. While the guests were playing cards in the basement, and at which Mrs. McAllister won first, Mrs. Chas. Bidner second and Mrs. H. M. Bouvey third, the guests were permitted to go to the main floor where a very delicious two-course luncheon was served. No time or effort had been pared to make the evening enjoyable, and the hostesses succeeded splendidly.

It was a rare treat enjoyed Monday evening in the Methodist church, when a good-sized audience greeted one of the greatest singers La Grande has ever had the opportunity of hearing.

The remarkable quality of the voice, so perfectly handled by this artist of song completely enraptured the house. As the program developed the audience had a splendid opportunity to hear the long technique and to notice how perfectly Mrs. Chapman understands how to handle her beautiful and full-sounding voice. At the close of the program she was the recipient of two large cluster bouquets after which she came back and sang another song, completely entrancing her listeners. Mrs. Chapman is in the zenith of her art and her voice is perfectly glorious.

One of the delightful affairs of the early week was the dinner party which was given Monday evening at Honan Hall. Covers were placed for 14. The latter part of the evening was devoted to playing cards and dancing. The table was adorned with pumpkins and lighted candles, the favors and appointments were suggestive of the Hallowe'en season. Those present were: Miss Jones, Miss Leslie, Miss Russell, Miss Grimmett, Miss Alkine, Mr. French, Mr. Olaycomb, Mr. Wild, Mr. Cox, Mr. Groman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Selders.

The Chautauqua association again showed the right spirit when it gave a benefit recital for Marguerite Carney. Miss Carney has always been a Chautauqua booster and has been on the program for several seasons. Her work at the Chautauqua was always gratis and the concert under the auspices of the association in some measure expresses the appreciation which the people of La Grande feel for public work well done.

Miss Carney was the stellar attraction on the program and rendered two groups of selections. Her full round voice filled the tabernacle easily. It was not a loud voice, but a full sweet one. For the first group of songs Miss Carney was her own accompanist. Though blind, she plays the piano without hesitation and with a great deal of expression.

Everyone seemed willing to help. The piano was furnished without expense by the Richey Music house. The association was fortunate in securing people of real musical ability to aid Miss Carney and thus make the program exceptionally strong, and worth more than the price of admission.

Mrs. Cornelia Barker Carse delighted the audience with her violin selections. Miss Harriet Young in two selections on the piano showed her mastery of that instrument. Mrs. A. L. Richardson, our coloratura soprano rendered her group of selections most exquisitely. With these stars the program was rounded out with the song of Mr. George Birnie, the cornet solo by Mr. Andrew Loney and a reading of Mrs. Metcalf. Mesdames, Berry, Metzler and Birnie were the accompanists.

The program rendered was as follows:

- "Spinning Song" (Flying Dutchman) Wagner
- "Etude B Flat Minor" Mendelssohn
- Miss Harriet Young
- (Indian Love Lyrics)—
- "Kashmiri Song" Amy Woodforde
- "Kashmiri Song" Amy Woodforde-Finden
- "Till I Wake" Amy Woodforde-Finden
- Miss Marguerite Carney
- Reading, "Symphony" Mrs. Metcalf
- "The Vulcan Song" Gounod
- "Sweetheart" Kenneth Rae
- Mr. George Birnie
- "Romance from 2d Concerto" Wieniawski
- "Souvenir" Drdla
- Mrs. Cornelia Barker Carse
- "The Wind's In the South" John Prindle Scott
- "Lullaby" (From Jocelyn) Godard
- "The Cuckoo" (From More Daisies) Liza Lehmann
- Mrs. A. L. Richardson

- Cornet Solos—
- "A Dream" Bartlett
- "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling" Lake
- Mr. Andrew Loney
- "I Gave You Roses" Aylward

News From Perry.

Perry, Ore. Nov. 6.—(Special).—A very unique Hallowe'en program was given by the Perry school Friday night. A great variety of entertainment including recitations, songs, dialogues etc., were given. County School Superintendent Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe was present and congratulated the school upon its work, after which a basket social was indulged in by those present.

Mr. Norman Stoddard, Wm. and Claud Gray returned Sunday after a three days hunt. They report seeing in the neighborhood of thirty deer mostly does. They bagged two fine bucks. Mr. H. W. Sherman, of Chicago, is here visiting the plant of the Grande Ronde Lumber Company. Mr. Sherman is the eastern representative of the lumber company and reports business outlook very good in the east.

will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.—Adv.

NEIGHBORLY ADVICE.

Freely Given by a La Grande Citizen. When one has suffered tortures from a bad back and found relief from the aches and pains, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following neighborly advice comes from a La Grande resident.

Mrs. F. Burgess, 1405 Ninth St., La Grande, says: "I was subject to lumbago. At times I could hardly get about and the pain in my back was so severe when I got down, I could hardly straighten up. Sharp pains, like a knife sticking in my back, took away my breath for a minute. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended so highly that I got a box and found them beneficial. Four boxes permanently cured me of lumbago and since then, I have never had any signs of backache. I could not advise anyone to take a better medicine for lumbago than Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burgess had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

For a Weak Stomach.

As a general rule all you need to do is to adopt a diet suited to your age and occupation and to keep your bowels regular. When you feel that you have eaten too much and when constipated, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets.—Adv.

Long Auto Trip Ends.

Cove, Oregon, Nov. 6.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Toles and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCutcheon returned home last week from their auto trip. They left here Sept. 26 going through Pendleton, Walla Walla, Yakima to Ellensburg where they made a short stop with an aunt and uncle leaving Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon there while they continued their pleasure trip over the Cascades through Sunset Pass as far as Tacoma, Wash., taking the Pacific highway to Vancouver returning home by way of Columbia highway. They report a very enjoyable trip and beautiful scenery but that for beauty the Grande Ronde valley still holds first rank.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Weaver who died at La Grande Nov. 1st at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Balt, was held at the Cove Baptist church at 11 o'clock Friday morning.

Miss Vera Pease was home for a few days the first of the week.

Preaching services will be held at the Episcopal church Sunday morning.

Commencing with Tuesday, Nov. 7, a serial picture "The Secret of the Submarine" will be shown at the Maccabee hall each week. John Tallant and family have moved into their new home.

Certain Cure for Croup.

Mrs. Rose Middleton, of Greenville, Ill., has had experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I was never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."—Adv.

Notice of First Meeting of Creditors.

(In bankruptcy No. 3991.) In the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon in the matter of Will H. McKittrick and Maude M. McKittrick, bankrupt.

To the creditors of Will H. McKittrick and Maude M. McKittrick: Notice is hereby given that on the 3rd day of November, 1916, the said Will H. McKittrick and Maude M. McKittrick were duly adjudicated bankrupts, and the first meeting of their creditors will be held in the office of the referee in bankruptcy in La Grande, Oregon, on the 18th day of November, 1916, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupts, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

R. J. GREEN, Referee in Bankruptcy. November 6, 1916. (All claims must be sworn to on bankruptcy blanks before filing.)—Adv. 11-6-16.

J. D. WOODELL.

Democratic Candidate for Representative from Union County

J. D. "Jimmy" Woodell, who aspires to the office of Representative is a farmer and a Union county boy and has served one term in that official capacity. He is asking re-election at the hands of Union county voters on his record of the last session of the legislature. Having been a resident of Union county all his life and being thoroughly acquainted with the needs of the county and state thoroughly qualify him for the position to which he so ably filled and to which he seeks re-election. His record as a citizen and official is above reproach. Vote 55 X J. D. WOODELL.
