SHERRY'S

A Great Western Story at Sherry's Today Only.

The American Film company, Inc., presents Anna Little and Frank Borzage in "The Land o' Lizards" in five acts, a powerful drama of the western plains written by Kenneth B. Clarke, staged by Frank Borzage.

Synopsis—With the beautiful emotional actress, Anna Little, in the part of "Bobbie," and the popular leading man, Frank Borzage, in the role of "The Stranger," the American Film company's production of Kenneth B. Clarke's unusual drama, "The Land o' Lizards," is one of the season's most successful offerings.

"The Stranger," a cowboy, is engaged by an Eastern capitalist to examine a gold stream on the Bar C ranch. Near the ranch is the sheep range of Dave Moore and his daughter, Bobbie, who wears boy's clothes as a disguise to protect herself from the lawless Bar C crowd. Bobbie becomes interested in the stranger, who discovers the placer site without knowing that Moore is secretly panning gold from it under the cover of night. The murder of Bobbie's father and the wounding of "The Stranger" by the Bar C cowboys leads to a series of stirring events which lay the foundation for the intensely interesting plot of the drama. "The Stranger's" discovery of Bobbie's secret—his organized attack on the Bar C ranch—Bobbie's capture and liberation added to her successful struggle for possession of the gold stream which was her father's lawful property—all add to the excitement of this absorbing western drama in which the two stars appear to excellent advantage in the many powerful dramatic scenes leading up to the thrilling surprise climax.

About 45 children were enrolled in the various classes, and judging from the attendance at the first session, great interest is manifested by the people in Perry, in this institution.
