Murder Charges Filed.

Seattle Nov. 7.—Announcement by Prosecuting Attorney Webb of Shonemish county that murder charges will be filed against members of the Industrial Workers of the World who actually participated in the gun fight at Everett, the refusal of Judge Dykeman of the King county superior court to release on habeas corpus writs of three women held in jail here in connection with the riot, and the statement of Secretary-Treasurer Herbert Mahler of the I. W. W. that the organization would seek to prosecute members of the Everett citizens' committee on a murder charge, marked yesterday's developments here in the aftermath of Sunday's battle at Everett in which seven men were killed and 50 wounded.

Judge Dykeman yesterday morning refused to release Mrs. Lorna Mahler, Mrs. Edith Frenett and Mrs. Joyce Peters, arrested here Sunday night when they returned from Everett, ordered the police to produce them in court Wednesday. Dykeman said the women should be held for their own safety, pending determination of their right. Prosecuting Attorney Webb brought several witnesses but they were unable to identify any of the 294 men in jail as the ones who actually fired the shots. Other witnesses will be brought today.

Takes Auto Over River on Two 10-Inch Planks.

Fred S. Ashley performed a hair-raising feat with an automobile at the Troy bridge over the Grande Ronde river last week. He had driven down the Troy hill and had sworn he never would venture that in a car again, and then arrived at the river to find the temporary repairs torn out for 60 feet preparatory to rebuilding permanently the section carried away by the ice last winter. Mr. Ashley did not want to go back, and hardly dared to, anyway. So he decided to improvise a bridge to carry him over.

Ten-inch planks were laid along stringers on each side, for the wheels. The planks overlapped at the ends, so that at regular intervals the car had to jump up three inches to the next plank. Fred D. Rinehart who was with Mr. Ashley walked ahead, and A. W. Hawkins and D. Cameron, who also were there, watched the owner drive his car forward over the perilous trip. It came through without an accident, but never will be repeated, says the driver.

Mr. Ashley was campaigning as a candidate for joint representative. He came out from Troy over the Powatka grade, and went to Union county late last week.—Enterprise Record-Chiefman.

STOCK FOR FEEDING PURPOSES

Recent Additions to the Experiment Farm Stock Exhibit.

(Union Republican.) Superintendent Robt. Withcombe and Prof. E. L. Potter of the O. A. C. have recently visited the North Powder section and brought back a fine lot of cattle, including a bunch of calves, which will be used for experiment feeding at the big farm. Last year this farm produced some of the finest animals for beef shipped from this section, and with each animal was an accurately kept chart showing just what feed was given, how much and what the result was in beef. The animals secured recently are fully up to the average, and some good results may be expected by turning-off time in the spring.

Ruth Hug Returns.

Ruth Hug of Elgin has been discharged from the Grande Ronde hospital and went home yesterday.

Guy Barton Sells His Fine Farm.

The papers transferring the Guy Barton farm on Prairie creek to Charley McClain were made out the last of the week and Mr. McClain and family have moved to the place. The tract consists of 160 acres of splendid land, and it has been the home of the Bartons for the last ten years. The farm is all in cultivation and the price that governed this sale was $15,000. Mr. and Mrs. Barton and children have moved to town that their children may have schooling advantages. They plan to travel some next summer, but will probably re-locate then within Wallowa county.—Joseph Herald.

$20 Nugget Is Picked Up.

Baker, Nov. 7.—(Special)—Jack Chambers picked up a nice nugget on his placer ground adjoining town here this week. It weighed about $20. He is pining on the old John Long ground and during the last few days has picked up a number of pieces of coarse gold, which leads him to believe that he is getting a good run in his race. Pete Mitchell is doing the pining.—Canyon City Eagle.

E. F. Dotson Buys Farm.

The Christensen & Platzzoeder 320-acre farm on Prairie creek was sold Tuesday to Elwin F. Dotson, who lately moved to this community following selling his Snake river holdings. The tract purchased by him is one of the best improved within the county and is about half in cultivation with further farming possibilities.

Possession was given on the following day when Mr. Dotson moved his family to the farm and started work.—Joseph Herald.

An Election Bet.

After election Jesse Spencer will either have two perfectly good suits of clothes bought by F. A. Bidwell and Ralph Hutchinson, or those gentlemen will be wearing each a new suit at Mr. Spencer's expense. It is a case of Hughes or Wilson.—Mr. Spencer backing Wilson.—Union Republican.

Attempted Suicide.

R. L. Sprague, a rancher of the eastern part of the country, well and favorably known in this section, attempted suicide at the Jennings hotel Monday shortly before noon when he drank carbolic acid. His plight was discovered almost immediately by Mrs. Sprague who summoned medical aid. The treatment rendered served to nullify the effects of the poison and he is recovering rapidly from the ordeal.

His desire to end life was the result of despondency and his friends will be glad to know that the attempt was ineffective.—Joseph Herald.
