FANNIE WARD IN "EACH PEARL A TEAR"

Scene From Paramount Picture at Arcade Today and Tomorrow.

"Each Pearl a Tear," Having established herself as one of the most versatile actresses on the screen, Miss Fannie Ward, the beautiful Lasky star, will be seen at the Arcade today and tomorrow in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "Each Pearl a Tear," written especially for her by Beatrice C. DeMille and Leighton Osmun, from the story by E. L. Sheldon. It is a Paramount picture.

the spoken drama. When the manufacturer's highest art, thus are now being shown to the fashion centers of the world. Here are serges, worsteds, cassimeres, chevots, home-spuns and tweeds that give you a new idea in rare and refined patterns.

has to do with a young girl who is led to believe by an unscrupulous millionaire, that she has lost a valuable string of pearls. She is forced to work for him to repay this loss. How she discovers that he still has the pearls, and uses them to wreck him financially, at the same time bringing wealth to her sweetheart, is brought about in an unusual and striking manner. Miss Ward has been surrounded by the Lasky company, with a cast of unusual excellence, including such well-known players as Jack Dean, Charles Clary, Paul Weigel and Jane Wolf.

Once again June Caprice forges to the front in a picture of country life. Her newest film for William Fox, "Little Miss Happiness," overflows with the quaint humor and spirit of the fields, with the innocence of a little girl who has passed her days among the daisies. In this new photoplay, Miss Caprice takes the part of Lucy White. Harry Hilliard, co-star with the New England actress, plays Dave Allen, son of Lucy White's neighbor, Squire Allen.
