basket that Pendleton and La Grande fell into. No comparative score basis prevails to judge by.

It may be that Baker and Elgin weren't booked—but that makes no difference. When a small school suddenly develops a team strong enough to beat Wallowa then she must be considered, and the Observer for one is insisting Baker play Elgin. Now it may be that Elgin can't approach Baker in strength—and then again maybe she can. In any event, Elgin should demand and be granted a game this year with the champions-apparent at Baker.

LA GRANDE II X OVERPOWERED

Collier, Freshman Halfback, is Mainstay for La Grande—Fans Gratified at Way Visitors Kept Scrapping Strong Aggregation.

La Grande was overpowered at Baker Saturday and lost the game with that school 35 to 0. Ted Ludman, who refereed, Superintendent McCullough and others who saw the game, declare that the Bakerites were simply too strong. The La Grander fought hard all the way. They held Baker scoreless the first quarter and were themselves twice on the point of scoring touchdowns. Toward the close of the game the Baker machine got into high speed and overwhelmed the visitors. Halfback Collier, a freshman, was La Grande's sterling ground gainer.

In fact the La Grande team gained twice as much yardage against Baker as Pendleton did against the same team. Collier was tackled with viciousness once and had to retire for a time but got back inter—yet his punch was gone. The breaks commenced to slip against La Grande with Collier's injury and from then on the effectiveness was gone.

Fans who saw the game declare that Baker should have won because she has a powerful team but they are heartily pleased over the fight La Grande displayed to the end.

Treatment on and off the field was all that could be desired.

Elgin-Baker Game Imperative.

When Elgin put the Wallowa Championship aspirations to sleep Saturday, that black-horse eleven commanded attention. Having beaten Wallowa when Wallowa was at her best, and Wallowa having beaten La Grande there remains but one thing for Baker to do, and that is to play Elgin. No fair-minded critic will concede the championship to Baker until she has thrust Elgin into the same ternoon about two o'clock. For awhile after the operation two weeks ago Curry was said to be improving but the change was only temporary. The body was brought home and the funeral was held Friday at the Advent church at 2 o'clock.

Worth and Chickasha, Ok. Now he is president of his own railway, the Anthony & Northern Railroad which is spreading through the Kansas wheat belt. Recently Byers learned that the locomotive he once drove was retired from service.

He immediately made an offer for No. 496. His bid was accepted and he had the locomotive rebuilt and drove it on its first trip over his line.

Tears, Idle Tears.

Tears, idle tears, I know not what they mean,
Tears from the depth of some divine despair
Rise in the heart and gather to the eyes,
In looking on the happy autumn fields,
And thinking of the days that are no more.

Fresh as the first beam glittering on a sail,
That brings our friends up from the underworld,
Sad as the last which reddens over one
That sinks with all we love below the verge;
So sad, so fresh, the days that are no more.

Ah, sad and strange as in dark summer dawns
The earliest pipe of half awakened birds
To dying ears, when unto dying eyes
The casement slowly grows a glimmering square;
So sad, so strange, the days that are no more.

Dear as remembered kisses after death,
And sweet as those by hopeless fancy feigned
On lips that are for others; deep as love,
Deep as first love, and wild with all regret;
O, death in life, the days that are no more.

—Tennyson.
