"THE SORROWS OF LOVE"
Italian Romance Offered by Triangle-Inca. Reviewed by Thomas C. Kennedy.

Surrounded by true Italian atmosphere, procured at no little effort on the part of the producer, Bessie Barriscale invests the character this love romance gives her with the remarkable acting skill she possesses and so faithfully does she enter into the spirit as well as the appearance of the part that an appealing personality and some beauty remain hidden somewhere within the person of the black-haired, dark-complexioned Beatrice. This picture will be shown at the Arcade today and tomorrow. The character as played by Miss Barriscale is not without personality, however. Beatrice is not only convincing because she looks Italian. Actions supplement appearance and the result is that Miss Barriscale's Beatrice, if not charming, is impressive.

Bessie Barriscale at Arcade.

Today and Tomorrow, "Sorrows of Love."

This story of an Italian nun's adventure into the world beyond walls whose protection she has enjoyed since childhood is admirable of construction. For what impressiveness the picture contains depends upon characterization more than strength of plot. To repeat the acting and the production are the main features of "The Sorrows of Love."

Beatrice receives her first desire to enter the world of which she knows so little when she hears the account of the Contessa Angelica, whose guardian has placed her in the convent to put an end to her love affair with a painter of low birth. At first Beatrice condemns the contessa, but the latter's retort is that she knows nothing of love and the sufferings of the world beyond the convent walls. On her death bed the Contessa gives the nun a ring and receives her promise to carry it to her lover, Carlo Parodi.

Parodi belongs to a society of workers who, under the guidance of Guido Perli, strive to defeat the oppression of the poorer classes exercised by the wealthy, whose champion in the Council Chamber is the Prince Candoni. Beatrice attends some of the meetings and she successfully pleads with the members to overcome Candoni's measures through the eloquence of their leader. Between Perli and Beatrice there comes a strong love. Through an error, she believes him faithless and deserts him. Perli becomes bitter. He leads his followers to the Palazzo of the Prince. Upon arriving they find the soldiers awaiting them. Numbers are killed, among them Perli, who lives just long enough to hear the confession of the sorrowing Beatrice and forgive her. Beatrice then returns to the convent.

Next to the acting of Bessie Barriscale, the Carlo Parodi of Wedgewood Nowell is the most convincing and impressive character portrayal in the picture. The detail and the artistic effect of the scenes throughout reflect credit on the director.

Stop the First Cold.

A cold does not get well of itself. The process of wearing out a cold wears you out, and your cough becomes serious if neglected. Hacking coughs drain the energy and sap the vitality. For 47 years the happy combination of soothing antiseptic balsams in Dr. King's New Discovery has healed coughs and relieved congestion. Young and old can testify to the effectiveness of Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs and colds. Buy a bottle today at your druggist, 50c.—Adv.

A Good Friend.

A good friend stands by you when in need. La Grande people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. Mrs. Nibler endorsed Doan's over six years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony? Mrs. M. E. Nibler, 2106 Third St., La Grande, says: "I was pretty well crippled up with pain in my back and right side. I found it difficult to do my housework and was suffering a good deal of misery. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills removed the aches and pains and of late, I have had no trouble." (Statement given May 20, 1910.) On May 25, 1916, Mrs. Nibler said: "You can continue to use my recommendation for Doan's Kidney Pills in the local papers, as you have in the past, if it will be the means of telling others about a good reliable kidney medicine. It has been several years since I have had to use a kidney remedy which is proof of the curative qualities of Doan's Kidney Pills." 50c at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv
