IMBLER PUPILS SHOW ENERGY

Adopt "Kid" as a Slogan—Other News from Imbler and Vicinity.

Imbler, Nov. 17.—(Special)—The 7th and 8th grades of the Imbler school rendered a short literary program and held a business session last Friday afternoon. K. I. D. (keep improving daily) is the new name adopted and old rose and green were selected as the society's colors. Arrangements were made to stage the first Pilgrim Thanksgiving on November 29th and Ted Larsen was appointed chairman of the general committee to arrange details in regard to costumes, dinner, etc.

Field Worker Crimes of the Union

Bible school movement is canvassing in this corner of the valley. The local high school has just been equipped with apparatus for the physics laboratory. H. L. Moss is now carrying on the experiments with our first class to be organized in this subject.

Jack Clary, who has made his home with "Andy" Russell for the past few years, said "Good-bye" to his many friends Wednesday evening and boarded the train for Walla Walla where he will visit for a few days before selecting a future home.

The I. H. S. quintet are making daily use of the basket ball and will soon be in condition for games.

Apple harvest is about over, most orchardists being busy now gathering and shipping the wind-falls, which at present appear to have a readier market than the pack apples.

Oatmeal And Apple Cakes. Sprinkle one cup of fine oatmeal into one and one-half quarts of boiling water and stir, continuing to boil until thick. Peel and core 10 large fat apples and cut into small pieces, mix with oatmeal and add one-half cup sugar, one-half cup flour. Cool and form into neat cakes. Fry in hot fat. Serve hot, sprinkled with sugar.

For Afternoon Teas Model A Frock After This Design

READY TO GO.

JOFFRE blue meter cleverly trimmed with an applique design of blue velvet ribbon gives this good looking gown. The cuffs and border of the peplum are also ribbon, while the smart mushroom hat is of the same shade. A striped front is attained by the use of white satin over a velvet, and bishop sleeves are cuffed with velvet.

Mrs. P. O. Stuchell Tells How She Cured Her Son of a Cold.

"When my son Ellis was sick with a cold last winter I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It helped him at once and quickly broke up his cold," writes Mrs. P. O. Stuchell, Homer City, Pa. This remedy has been in use for many years. Its good qualities have been fully proven by many thousands of people. It is pleasant and safe to take.—Adv.
