Society News

For the first time since the magnificent Elks' temple was constructed it was put to use for private social affair Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Scroggin, Dr. and Mrs. M. K. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Birnie and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Putman entertained approximately 300 people at dancing. The party was primarily an informal one but the beauty of the surroundings, the elegant gowns worn by the ladies and the various delightful features combined to make the event one of unusual social enjoyment. The massive and beautiful ball room was not decorated along any particular scheme but large chrysanthemum bouquets and other flowers were placed at frequent intervals. This informality in decoration did not detract from the general effectiveness. One hundred and fifty couples danced until a late hour to the melodies of a seven-piece orchestra.

Caroline Palmer and Edith Bragg presided at the punch table which had been partially hidden behind a profusion of chrysanthemums.

Many out of town guests were present to enjoy the very delightful evening of dancing.

Sandwiches and coffee and sweetmeats were served from still another table at which Mrs. Fred Gaskil and Mrs. C. H. Conkey were the presiding dignitaries.

Wednesday afternoon and evening Mrs. F. L. Meyers was a charming hostess at cards. Guests for 10 tables were assembled during the afternoon, and played bridge. Mrs. M. B. Donohue scoring highest and Miss Irene Murphy won consolation. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were used effectively in decorating the comfortable home. A two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. The same evening men and ladies were invited in, to the number of 32. Much the same decorative and refreshment schemes as prevailed in the afternoon being again carried out. Mrs. Will Sawyer scored highest at the evening's play at bridge and R. W. Logan was second.

Meeting on Thursday evening instead of the customary Friday date, the Kaffee Klatch was entertained Thursday of this week by Mr. and Mrs. Turner Oliver and Miss Margaret Anson at the Anson home. High score went to Dr. M. K. Hall for the men and Mrs. George T. Cochran for the ladies. F. L. Meyers took the consolation score. The hostesses served refreshments. It is announced that Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Conkey and Mrs. Grace Molitor will entertain the same club next Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Molitor.

Eight little folks helped Mary Mildred Ridenour celebrate her fifth birthday anniversary last Saturday at the home of her parents on Sixth street. Mrs. Ridenour had used pink and white decorations that pleased the juvenile but critical eyes, and the refreshments themselves were in keeping with the color scheme of the day. Games were played during the afternoon and when the visitors went home they all had the best of things to say about the hostess and her mamma. Those present included Marjorie and Merle Gore, Edith Ebeli, Lucile and Codove Diggs, Russell Nelson, Alice Latham and Lois Nelson.

The Lucky Thirteen club was graciously entertained last week on the usual meeting day by Mrs. Grace Molitor and Mrs. Will French. A two-course luncheon was served the guests at the conclusion of play. Red carnations were utilized as favors and place cards to match were provided. At cards Mrs. E. T. Andrews won high score. The next meeting of this group of ladies who meet alternate Thursday afternoons for pleasant functions will be at the home of Mrs. F. L. Meyers with Mrs. Lilly and Mrs. Meyers hostesses.

News has reached this city of the marriage of Miss Ruby Broughton and Geo. Lee at San Miguel, Calif., Oct. 22nd. Miss Broughton is formerly of La Grande.

The Women of Woodcraft held their annual election of officers Tuesday evening. The following were elected as officers for the ensuing year: Carrie Robbs, G. N.; Elizabeth Gore, Adv.; Louise Hilary, Clerk; Isabelle Adv.; Louise Hilary, Clerk; Stella Martin, Mag.; Eleanor Reed, Attendant; Isabelle Murray and Clara Bradway, Sentinels; Mary Worth, Lena Head, Elizabeth Hugh, Managers; Edith Adams, Capt. of Guards; Lillie Allstott, Installing Officer.

Friday afternoon at 2:30 the Dramatic department of the Neighborhood club presented the moral play "Everyman" to members of the club. This was not given as a finished and polished production but as the most effective means of study that can be given this department. That the play was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests was proven by their words of praise at the close of the entertainment. Every actor and actress gave their lines with real professional technique and this with the splendid costuming for the different roles made the play a real treat. Tuesday, November 20, the dramatic department will hold their regular meeting at which time study and lecture hours will be ably handled.

A most interesting and instructive program was given Tuesday, "Oregon Day" at the Neighborhood club. Mrs. Lee Warnick gave a strong paper on "Oregon—Its Possibilities." Mrs. Turner Oliver followed with a paper on "The Old Oregon Trail and Its Successor, the Lincoln Highway." Mrs. Oliver appeared for the club before the Good Roads meeting this summer and Tuesday she gave a more detailed paper along the same lines. Woven into her talk were many events of local historical interest especially interesting to La Grander because of the fact that La Grande in the early day played such an important role as one of the stopping points upon the immigrant trail. Three short talks followed upon the schools of our state, embracing "Our University" by Mrs. Herbert Hanna, "Our Normal," Mrs. E. E. Bragg and "Our Agricultural College" by Mrs. J. K. Wright who supplied for Mrs. Walter Pierce who was unable to be present. Not last or least on the program was the singing of "Oregon, My Oregon" by the club lead by Mrs. T. J. Scroggin with Mrs. R. J. Green at the piano. The ladies sang well and proved that each and everyone was proud to call Oregon her Oregon.

Mrs. Josie Gilham, of Townsend, Mont., past grand matron of the Grand Chapter O. E. S. of Montana, and her mother, Mrs. R. M. Romig, are in the city the guests of L. H. Russell and family of South La Grande. Mrs. Gilham and Mr. Russell are first cousins.

OFFER BIG PRIZE TO AID SOCIETIES

National Apple Show Will Give $100 For Best Food Display.

One of the women's clubs or aid societies of the Inland Empire is to have its treasury enriched to the extent of $100 as the result of a new competition announced for the women's department of the ninth National Apple show to be held at Spokane November 20 to 25.

BARRED FROM ATHLETICS LAST YEAR, LE GORE IS YALE'S BEST BET SINCE TED COY

Barred from athletics at Yale last season on account of alleged professionalism, Harry Le Gore, re-instated, is the star on whom the Blue depends to wrest back the gridiron honors Harvard has been monopolizing in the east. Le Gore was suspended following an investigation by university officials, who charged him with playing summer baseball with a semi-pro team on Long Island. Playing at his old position, left halfback, Le Gore has been a sensation this year.
