Members of the National Stock company which played to a good house at the Arcade last night, went out to branchline points this morning to fill dates there. "The Turning Point" was the number given last evening and it was a fine success in every way.

Plan for Campaign.
A meeting of committeemen has been called by Chairman Linden McCullough for tomorrow night at the Y. M. C. A. to arrange for the Y. M. C. A. membership campaign banquet to be held soon.

Drinkers Have Busy Days in Prairie City.
John Day, Or., Nov. 21.—(Special)—Adoption of the "bone dry" amendment has resulted in a constant stream of automobiles to and from Prairie City, the express office through which all shipments of liquor for interior parts of the county must pass. Seventy-odd packages of liquor were delivered to thirsty applicants Monday by Agent Hibbs.

Over the Blue Mountains.
Congressman Wm. L. LaFollette, who was recently in Walla Walla expressed himself as keenly interested in the question of the federal government doing something at an early date to aid in the movement of building one or more good roads through the Blue Mountains. Local good roads men will supply him with full particulars and along with Congressman Sinnott of Oregon he promises to see what can be done when he returns to Washington. While in Portland and Salem last month County Judge J. H. Marsh and Commissioner H. M. Cockburn made formal application for federal aid in the building of two roads through the forest reserve in Umatilla county. The application was made with B. J. Finch, supervisor of federal roads, says the Pendleton East Oregonian. They asked for an appropriation from the federal road fund for the rebuilding of the old Thomas and Rucker stage road up the Umatilla past Bingham Springs, thence up the south fork to Somerville, and also for an appropriation for a road across the reserve from Elgin to Milton. Supervisor Finch promised to send one of his field men to this country in the near future to examine the proposed roads.
