FINAL COUNT IN WALLOWA

Relative to the election figures in Wallowa county the Enterprise Chief-tain says:

For sheriff, the official canvass increased F. D. Rinehart's lead over Edgar Martin to 43.

For joint representative, J. A. Eggleston had a plurality in Wallowa county of 125 over F. S. Ashley. But the latter had 345 the best of the vote in Union county and so is elected.

A. Fairchild received 471 more votes for district attorney than his nearest competitor, C. M. Corkins, and W. G. Trill got 606 for the same office.

Sam Litch, for county commissioner, got 1581 votes to 1269 for Hugh Wilson, a lead of 312.

The vote for county clerk developed into a runaway for C. H. Zurcher, he receiving 2143 to 790 for J. W. Powers, a plurality of 1353.

For surveyor, E. M. Billings defeated A. H. Rudd by a majority of 687, the two candidates receiving 1852 and 1165 votes respectively.

President Wilson had the largest plurality in any really contested vote in the county. He received 1938 to 1204 cast for C. E. Hughes, a lead of 734. This surprised no one who had been through the county, for on every hand were found voters registered as republicans who openly said that President Wilson was their choice.

The total number of votes cast was 3473. The official canvass was made by County Clerk Zurcher, Justice A. B. Conaway and Justice R. McCrae. The vote follows:

Barkley, 371; Sinnott, 1957.
Secretary of State—Cannon, 315; Oleott, 2243.

Judge of Supreme court—Bright, Moore, 1138; Oliver, 1263.
pel, 218.

Constable Troy district, Charles J. Fleming, 79.

Constable, Imnaha district, Mrs. N. A. Crawford, 95.

Constable, Pittsburg district, H. J. Kiger, 22.

This discloses the curious fact that a woman has been elected constable in one district, Mrs. Crawford of Imnaha. Her name was put on as a socialist, and whether she cared or not, she got the votes.

Car Shortage Forces Baker Mill to Close.

Baker, Ore., Nov. 20.—The planing mill of the Baker White Pine Lumber company closed Thursday for lack of cars to ship and the Stoddard Brothers Lumber company probably will close Thursday for lack of cars to ship and the Stoddard Brothers Lumber company probably will close tomorrow unless immediate relief is secured, which is not now promised by local railroad authorities.

Closing of planing mills will not affect sawmills or wood crews yet, but about 300 planer men will be out of employment until work is resumed if all mills have to close.

Shipping sheds at all local plants are filled to overflowing with finished lumber awaiting shipment and local mills are behind in orders.
