GOSSARD CORSETS
on Living Models

See how nine women with ordinary figures obtain charming, graceful figure lines with correctly fitted Gossard Corsets. See how Mrs. Allen and her three daughters were cruelly snubbed and then how their triumphant entrance into society was made possible through the kind offices of Mrs. Stuyvesant.

Mothers are urged to bring their daughters, as this picture is equally delightful to young girls. Complimentary passes are being issued by us and you can obtain as many as you like for yourself and your friends by calling at our Corset Department. The demand for seats will be great and even though we have engaged the Arcade Theater for the entire afternoon, you are urged to secure your seats early to avoid disappointment. Call and get your tickets today.

How Some of Our Commonest Fabrics Were Named.

Calico used to come from Calcutta, India. Sailors would present their sweethearts with a pattern of calico and expect the lady to be wearing the same dress when they returned from their next trip, three years later. It would wear three years, but now any cotton weaver turns out calico that hardly lasts three months.

Satin came from Zaytoon, China, damask from Damascus. Baize could only be properly made in Baza, Spain. Cambric was a French importation, and muslin was made on hand looms at Mosul, Asia. The valley of Kashmir, in India, sent us Himalaya cashmere that Yankee ingenuity can never imitate.

Serge got its name from a Spanish word, serge, and Jersey cloth was first called serge. Foreign countries now buy their fabrics from us to a great extent, and we feel such pride in goods made in America that we are ashamed to sign for the real bona fide article of grandma's day.

Perhaps, put away in camphor and moth balls, you treasure "a cashmere Paisley" shawl, or in a lavender scented chest there rests pure Laon lawn imported by your great-uncle from Laon, France. Let them stay in their packings. All the secrets of dyeing and weaving our tradesmen have mastered, and living is twice as easy for women today because of it. The old colors wore well, and the old weaves lasted wonderfully—but, oh, how lovely the new things are!

Preacher W. S. Hart Douses Foe in New Feudist Drama.

William S. Hart, the Triangle star, who comes to the Arcade tomorrow, has fought so many fights for the films, since his advent into the motion picture fold, that many of his followers are disappointed if he makes his appearance in a drama that does not offer him the opportunity of displaying his prowess.

The stalwart hero of Triangle "westerns" realizes this and so cherishes the chance to "mix it" with an antagonist during the filming of each of his plays. But he realizes, too, that to stage the same kind of fight in each production is to invite a decrease of interest in his work. Hence, it was quite natural, during the filming of "The Apostle of Vengeance," Kentucky feud story in which he is starred, that he conjure up a new "twist" for the fight scene.

PASTOR AND WIFE SURPRISED

Members of Baptist Church Invade Parsonage and Shower Occupants.

The home of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Tichner, of the Baptist church was ruthlessly attacked and invaded a few days ago—Saturday evening it was—when the ladies of the Baptist church gave a food shower to the pastor and his wife. Amid much amusement and good cheer they loaded down the parsonage with fruit and preserve larders until they actually groaned and these delicacies are stacked up high enough to last all winter. Rev. and Mrs. Tichner are naturally elated over the event in their honor.

America and Germany are the greatest eyeglass and spectacle wearing nations of the world. Five Americans wear glasses to one of any other nation.

Deplorable were it not a fact that blindness in America has decreased over 20 per cent since the advent of glasses, while in every other country of the globe there is an actual increase.

The fight scene in "The Apostle of Vengeance" depicts Hart, as the Herculean young minister-son of a feudist, engaged in fistic combat with an equally powerful "boot legger," when the latter attacks a girl in the mountains. To equip the scene with a new "twist," Hart selected as a "location" the steep bank of a mountain stream. This enabled him to send his opponent reeling into the water. The scene has been pronounced one of the most thrilling ever filmed for a Hart drama.

Come In And Let Me Tell You About My
New Farm Loan

A 20 Year Amortized Rural Credit Loan
No Commission No Renewals

TO UNION COUNTY FARMERS:-

For several years I have been working and planning for easier money to loan on good old Grand Ronde farm lands.

Finally I have arranged with one of the largest loaning companies (a company that has $85,000,000 loaned to the farmers of the West) for a real Rural Credit loan based on a 20-year amortized plan. 20 equal payments of but little more than current interest pays off your entire debt.

You pay no commissions, choose your own date of payment and pay at your own bank. You can pay any amount of your loan at any time. This plan figures you a saving of nearly 3 per cent over the usual farm loan made heretofore in this county. If interested call and let me explain fully.
