NEWS FROM THE HOSPITAL

Sam Deal, veteran of South La Grande, is at the hospital in a rather critical condition.

John A. Nord, a photographer at the Towne studio, is at the hospital in a very critical condition.

Lawrence Hull, who lost five fingers in a sawmill at Perry recently, is recovering with all possible haste, and indications are now that he will be spared his hand.

Miss Gertrude Courtney, a high school girl who underwent an operation for appendicitis recently, is so far recovered that physicians expect her to be able to leave the hospital tomorrow.

"Ishmael" a Strong Number.
The beautiful story of "Ishmael" as played last night at the Arcade theatre by the National Stock company certainly made a hit with the appreciative audience that greeted this group of players. The different members went through their parts with a vim and snap. As to who was the star, we will leave that to the more critical, the acting of Maynon Steward as Claudia Merlin and M. R. Lee as Ishmael probably stand out the more prominent although all the members handled the difficult lines in a very creditable manner.

Enterprise Personals.
Enterprise, Nov. 28.—(Special)—The Record-Chiefain says: C. E. Funk went to La Grande on Sunday to have one eye treated. A growth has been coming over the member and he was advised this could be removed without injury to his sight.

Mrs. Jackson of La Grande came over Saturday for a few days visit with her daughter, Della. She may decide to stay all winter. If she does she and Della will occupy apartments in the new Burnaugh building. Charles Haggerty, brother of Mrs. Ben Weathers and of J. F., A. W. and A. C. Haggerty, died last Wednesday at Union, and the members of his family here went out the next day to the funeral. A. W. Haggerty went in his car, taking Mr. and Mrs. Weathers and A. C. Haggerty. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haggerty went on the train.

A. W. Hawkins departed on Friday's train for La Grande, where he had business connected with an important law case. He returned to Enterprise Saturday.

Charles H. Cole, who has lived in the county for six years, has rented a farm near Imbler and moved there last week.
