Cakes. Coffee. Pina.
Bonbons. Nuts. Fruit.

ROAST TURKEY, GIBLET STUFFING.
ING.—Select a plump ten pound cock turkey having smooth dark legs and the cartilage at the end of the breastbone soft and pliable. Dress, clean, stuff, truss and place on its back in a dripping pan. Rub the entire surface with salt and spread the breast, legs and wings with one-third of a cupful of butter rubbed until creamy and mixed with one-quarter cupful flour. Dredge the bottom of the pan with flour, place in a hot oven and when the flour on the turkey begins to brown reduce the heat, baste with the fat in the pan and add two cupfuls of boiling water. Continue the basting every fifteen minutes until the turkey is cooked, which will require about three hours. For basting use one-half cupful butter melted in one-half cupful boiling water and after this is used baste with the fat in the pan.

Giblet Stuffing.—Cook the giblets (gizzard, heart and liver) and chop fine. Remove the water in which the giblets were cooked, which should furnish two and three-quarters cupfuls stock. Split sixteen common crackers and spread each half with one-quarter of a tablespoonful of butter. Pour over the hot stock and as soon as the crackers have taken in all of the stock add the chopped giblets, then season.

Thanksgiving Cake.—Cream one-half pound of butter and add gradually while beating one-half pound of sugar. Separate the yolks and whites of six eggs and beat the yolks until thick and lemon colored, the whites until stiff and dry and add to first mixture. Add one-half pound of flour (excepting three tablespoonfuls, which should be reserved to dredge the fruit) mixed and sifted with one-half teaspoonful each of nutmeg, allspice and mace and one-tenth of a teaspoonful clove; then

Frenchy Salads.

LOBSTER SALAD GOURMET.—For four persons, take two lobsters and cut into square pieces; mix thoroughly with chopped celery and mayonnaise. Decorate around the edge with circles, or rather with disks of sliced eggs and thin slices of lobster alternately. Place on top a core and halved olive filled with capers. Do not serve on lettuce leaves.

Crab Meat Regalia.—Mix the crab meat with mayonnaise and chopped shallots; decorate with the yolks of eggs which have been pressed through a sieve. This covers the entire top of the salad, hiding the mayonnaise. Form a border of chopped parsley and put the parsley over the egg in four broad dividing lines, between the lines dot a space with the chopped whites of eggs and place on top of them a few specks of chopped pimientos. With all this decoration the mayonnaise is hidden.

Herring Salade Francaise.—This salad also is not served on lettuce. For it take potatoes, herring, beets, apples, gherkins and capers and cut all into small pieces. Mix all together and season with French dressing and a pinch of cayenne pepper. Decorate with beets and apples which have been cut into half moon shape, also gherkins, chopped, and sliced beets, top with half a core olive filled with capers.

Salade Norvegian.—For this take julienne of beets, anchovy, potatoes and watercress. Season with French dressing. Arrange each item of the salad (the beets, anchovy and potatoes) in a separate mound placed in a close row. Serve on lettuce leaves.

Fresh Fruit Salad Tropical (Salade des Fruits, Tropical).—Take a small heart of lettuce and remove the middle part; fill it with fresh fruits in season, orange from which all skin and pulp have been removed, grapefruit freed from skin and pulp and sliced pineapple. Decorate with raspberries, split blackberries, red maraschino cherries, split, and green maraschino cherries cut en julienne. Season with French dressing.

Martinique Salad.—Hearts of lettuce served whole with center removed and filled instead with apples and julienne celery. Decorate with red peppers cut en julienne and chopped walnuts served on the side in a lettuce leaf. French dressing.

Mae Murray's Pet Ostrich

MAE MURRAY, LASKY STAR IN PARAMOUNT PICTURES.
Mae Murray was presented with this ostrich she now has as her pet. So fond has she become of the bird that she is teaching it to sing like a canary and is meeting with success. Her greatest disappointment is that she cannot keep the bird at her hotel in Hollywood, the result of which compels the pet to remain at the studio. It follows her all day long and is a bird of unusual beauty.
