Church Council Representin 18,000,000 Members Starts Business Sessions

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 7.—(United Press)—With the organization and other preliminaries completed at the opening yesterday the Third Quadrennial Meeting of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America today settled down to the transaction of business. The 450 delegates attending represent thirty of the leading protestant denominations in the United States with a total membership of more than eighteen millions.

Some of those who will address the sessions are William Jennings Bryan, Professor Shailer Mathews, the Rev. Charles S. McFarland, Dr. Frederick

At noon to day and each noon until the meeting closed December 11 Evangelistic meetings will be held in a downtown theatre and others in the shops and factories. Professor Shailer Mathews of the Chicago University is president of the Council and will preside at most of the sessions.

Political foes of Roosevelt and George W. Perkins plan to reorganize the Progressive Party.

What Paris Sent Over For Your Winter Wear

THE TRIMMEST ONE.

TURBANS are still the rage for street wear, and from the French capital comes this soft felt in light and dark gray trimmed with fox fur and a satin ribbon flower. The crown takes the lighter shade of gray. Paris rarely uses but one kind of trimming.

Some Beauty Don'ts.

Don't wear thin shoes and gossamer silk stockings in cold weather or Nature will take her revenge and you will have that pained, chilled look that is so unbecoming. Don't economize in shoe leather. Don't take everything but exercise and then complain that you are growing stout. Exercise, even if the weather is bad, by preparing for it. A brisk walk on a cold day is a splendid complexion beautifier.

Don't fall to dry your hands thoroughly after washing if you wish to prevent them from getting chapped. Don't forget to wear a veil if your skin is susceptible to cold winds. Don't wear any heavy headgear. It is very hard on the hair. Don't let your rooms get too hot and never sit in a room that gives you chills. Have plenty of heat and keep a window open a little at the top.

A long walk will take away that tired, worn look so many women have

The Cake Box.

CHOCOLATE CAKE.—Beat the yolk of an egg, add half a cupful of milk, a cupful of sugar and a cupful of grated chocolate, cook over boiling water until it thickens, then set aside until cold. Cream half a cupful of butter, add gradually a cupful of sugar, then add half a cupful of milk alternately with two and a half cupfuls of flour sifted with two rounded teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Flavor with two teaspoonfuls of vanilla, add the cold chocolate mixture and bake in layers. Boil two cupfuls of sugar and half a cupful of water until it threads, then pour slowly on the whites of two eggs beaten very stiff, add two squares of melted chocolate, flavor with vanilla and spread between the layers and over the top of the cake.

Walnut Cream For Filling.—A cupful and a half of milk, scalded, an egg well beaten, a scant half cupful of sugar, a dessertspoonful each of flour and cornstarch, a quarter teaspoonful of salt, mix all with egg, add to milk and cook in double boiler until quite thick. When cool flavor with vanilla and add a cupful of hickory nuts ground fine (pass them through meat chopper). Spread on cake. If you prefer use a white frosting on top and decorate with whole nut meats put on in designs.

Raisin Cake.—This is fine and keeps good in hot weather as well as cold. Take an egg, beat thoroughly, add a tablespoonful of lard, a tablespoonful of butter and three-quarters of a cupful of sugar. Beat well. Take half a cupful of the water in which you have boiled half a cupful of raisins; to this water add a teaspoonful of soda, a cupful and a half of raisins and a cupful and a half of flour. Bake in moderate oven.

Nut Cake.—Cream three-quarters of a cupful of butter with a cupful of sugar and add two well beaten eggs and a cupful of milk. Sift together two cupfuls of flour, a teaspoonful and a half of baking powder and a pinch of salt. Stir into the milk, sugar and eggs and then add a cupful of chopped raisins and a cupful of chopped nuts. Bake in shallow loaves. Ice with white icing and add halved nuts for decoration.

FRANCHISES' RATES UPSET

Public Service Commission has Authority to Set Aside Rates Provided in Any Oregon Franchise.

Salem, Or., Dec. 7.—(Special)—The State Public Service commission has power to make an order permitting a telephone company to charge customers more than the rates named in a franchise, the supreme court held this morning in a decision in the case of the city of Woodburn against the Public Service commission and the Western Telephone company. In other words the franchise of a city is of no effect when the state wishes to exercise its authority. The supreme court holds that the right to regulate rates is essentially a police power.

After the consolidation of the United Telephone company, with the Western Telephone company, the Public Service commission a year ago directed that the Western company charge a specific schedule of rates and it was contended that these rates were in excess of the ones named in the franchise.

Company Was Enjoined. Circuit Judge Galloway of Marion county, enjoined the company from exacting any charges in excess of the amounts specified in the charter, and the supreme court reversed his decision.

"The inquiry involves two general questions, first, the effect of the franchise when considered by itself, and second, the result effected by the franchise when considered with relation to the city and state," the supreme court says in its decision.

"If the franchise is deemed a contract between the city and the telephone company, then the mere fact that it was made prior to the enactment of the public utility statute and before the state attempted to regulate the rates, does not debar the state from increasing the rates fixed in the contract between the parties for the reason that the law wrote into it a stipulation by the city that the sale could at any time exercise its police power and change the rates, and therefore when the state does exercise its police power it does not work an impairment of any obligation of the contract."

Regulation Is Police Power. The supreme court holds that as the right to regulate rates is essentially a police power, the argument of Woodburn that a constitutional provision took from the legislative assembly the right to legislate concerning regulation of rates is not well taken.

"While the constitution grants to a city the right to enact and amend its charter and simultaneously prohibits the legislative assembly from enacting, amending or repealing the charter for any city, nevertheless neither the grant nor the prohibition includes any subjects except those that are purely local and municipal in character," says the supreme court.

The right to regulate rates is a matter of general concern and does not pertain solely to local municipal affairs, the court finds.

State Is Interested. "It is true that the regulation of the rates for telephone in Woodburn may not immediately affect the pocketbooks of all the people of the whole state any more than does the prosecution of a person in justice court for assault and battery, when taken alone and by itself, directly affect all the people of the whole state, and yet the state is just as much interested in promoting the comfort and general welfare of all the people as in preserving peace for all the people," says the supreme court.

The franchise granted by Woodburn was valid until the state chose to speak, it was pointed out.
