SHERRY'S

At Sherry's Today

The arrival of "Love Never Dies" in Bluebird photoplays at the Sherry theatre today and tomorrow will introduce Franklyn Farnum as a new leading man in the Bluebird organization. Mr. Farnum will support Ruth Stonehouse, star of the production, in presenting a five-act love story, inspired by Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" and directed by Wm. Worthington.

Mr. Farnum is a brother of Dustin and William Farnum, two names familiar to "fans" who will be glad to welcome a third Farnum to the screen. Like his brothers, Franklyn Farnum has made an enviable record during his appearance upon the legitimate stage. Musical comedy has been his chief field of activity during the past few years, "Mme. Sherry," "The Dollar Princess," "The Only Girl," and "The Candy Shop" being plays with music in which he has more recently appeared.

His youth and manliness fitted him so exactly to the leading role of "Love Never Dies" that Bluebird secured him especially to support Miss Stonehouse in the forthcoming feature. He makes an ideal type of hero, interpreting the role of a violinist who played, as a child, his favorite instrument that his little sweetheart might dance upon the village green to the music of "Spring Song."

The passing years carried the little sweethearts apart, but they met later, under unusual circumstances, and then came a renewal of their childhood affection for each other. That there was opposition to their fervid love-plans made no difference to them, and in spite of fractured ethics, they lived together through happy months of blisaful love. Then came a sudden change, and more years of separation and heart aches—especially for the girl, who lived to love her one and only love. In accomplishing the final and happy ending Bluebird has photographed some beautifully artistic scenes, and created an entertainment of vital force and impelling interest, through scores of gripping episodes.

ARCADE

Special Vaudeville Act Here.

In addition to the Paramount picture featuring Blanche Sweet, Thomas Meighan and Theodore Roberts, which will be shown at the Arcade for the last time tonight, there will also appear the LaVerne-Grimm Trio. This trio is made up of two ladies and a man and comes very highly recommended from the Alta theatre (Pendleton.) This act is a musical and singing act, the players being artists on the saxophone and cornet and will prove a treat to the followers of music. An entirely new program will be offered Wednesday in connection with the Triangle feature, "The Deserter," featuring the youngest star on the screen, Charles Ray.

The story deals with stirring events at a frontier army post in 1868. Ray has the role of a lieutenant, who has a hasty and nasty temper. After being spurned by the girl he loves and getting into a fight with some gamblers, he is arrested for striking his superior officer. Rather than face the court-martial he makes his escape into the desert and is found by some travelers nearly dead with thirst. The settlers are attacked by Indians and Parker, Charles Ray, makes his escape to the fort, only after a thrilling fight with an Indian in which they fall from a cliff 70 feet high. The Indian is killed by the fall and Parker, although wounded, succeeds in getting to the fort and the settlers are rescued. When they reach the fort they find that their rescuer has died from his wounds but is to be buried as a hero and not as a deserter.

Nautical Knot Will Be Banner Affair

Various Stellar Roles To Be Taken By Adept Pupils of the High School—Occurs Friday Night.

On Friday evening the students of La Grande High school will present the "Nautical Knot" in the high school auditorium. With only two days left for rehearsal, the singers have settled down in earnest work and the enthusiasm which they are showing as the day of presentation draws closer, leads those who have had the opportunity to watch the practice, to feel that this event will be the headliner for the first semeser.

As the title indicates, this operetta is a tale of the sea, and the action is based upon the love affairs of a group of fickle sailors, who have landed at Barnstapoole. The sailors are very unfortunate in that they all fall in love with the same girl, "The Belle of Barnstapoole," who refuses even to more than recognize them. She falls in love with an artist, and as a result, the sailors plot against him in order to keep Julia from marrying him.

Many comic instances are introduced by these sailors in their honest endeavor to win attention from Julia, and at the same time avoiding their former sweethearts.

Man Kisses Cow.

New York, Dec. 12.—(S[illegible] New York magistrates probably [illegible] more strange crimes and offenses [illegible]deal with than any other in the [illegible] The cosmopolitan population of [illegible] York brings out strange freaks, [illegible] in the matter of law breaking, but probably the strangest offense that has yet happened, and for which punishment was dealt out, came to the attention of magistrate Cornell, who has just sentenced a man to prison because he kissed a cow. The fact that this occurred in the midst of a crowded city, where cows are not very prevalent and the inhabitants, it is assumed, do not have an opportunity to develop an individual affection for them, only makes the offence the more unique. However, a man, who for some reason or other, was feeling particularly happy and sentimental, spied a fine Jersey that was passing through town due to a change of owners, and greeted her with a resounding smack. Why should he have been particularly grateful to the cow is hard to determine. It is presumed that his good humor was due to something besides milk, but it is recorded that the Jersey far from resenting the mark of affection, and the evidences of hilarity that must have come with it, gave her admirer a strenuous lick with her tongue that practically encompassed her face. It was at this point that a policeman interfered and dragged the Romeo to a court where the magistrate gave him six months, under the general charge of disorderly conduct, although many who were present stated that it might have been inflicted under the head of 'cruelty to animals.'

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

"Gets-It" Never Fails for Corns!

There's Nothing on Earth Like It For Corns and Calluses.

"Whenever you get corns and calluses, don't experiment — just use "GETS-IT" and nothing else. Easiest and simplest thing I know to use—just a few drops on in a few seconds—"GETS-IT" does the rest." The old way is to bundle up your toes in harnesses and bandages, use salves that make toes raw, cotton rings that make your corns pop-eyed, knives and "diggers" that tear your heart out and leave the corn in. No wonder they make you limp and wince. Forget all these—use "GETS-IT," the simplest corn remedy in the world, easiest to use, never fails or sticks, painless. Your corn loosens, then you lift it off. You can wear smaller shoes.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in La Grande and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by C. D. Putnam.
