for the last time today.

Miss Dana, youngest of motion picture stars, has two reels in this powerful production, first appearing as Evelyn, a scorned mother and next as Eve, her daughter. The story contains strong love elements and gives the young star ample opportunity to display her emotional ability. Supporting Miss Dana are Augustus Phillips, Robert Walker, Edward Earle, Grace E. Stevens, Fred Jones and Harry Linson. John H. Collins, who directed the production, declares it is one of the strongest and most beautiful pastoral dramas he has produced for the screen.

"No better star than Miss Dana could have been chosen," he added. "She fits perfectly into the two roles allotted to her."

Miss Dana, who is only 18 years old, has proved a marvel since she began appearing in many difficult roles in motion pictures. Before that time she was known from coast to coast for her remarkable performance in "The Poor Little Rich Girl."

"Her Father's Son," a Morosco-Paramount Play Will Be Presented.
Today Only.

"Her Father's Son" is the clever title of the remarkable Morosco-Paramount photoplay which is at the Arcade today only. A poor father and a rich uncle, who has no son, cause the tangle. France's father, dying, pledges her to this masquerading—as a boy.

Under her uncle's roof with his daughter Betty as a chum, the deception becomes very amusingly difficult. Many are the hazards and strange carryings-on of this whimsical young "man." A youth, who almost shot the old colored retainer; the "boy" who was always disappointing "his" uncle's expectations; the one who dreadfully choked Betty by guilelessly walking into her boudoir to see the pretty dresses.

This is the youth that bore a remarkable likeness to Betty's girl cousin from St. Louis, a most elusive person, who stole the heart of a gallant young officer visiting the mansion. But into this most fascinating game of hide and seek comes an element that France hadn't reckoned upon and which caught her unawares. Beautiful little Vivian Martin as France carries the part with a spirit of mischief that is most fascinating.

EARLY SHOPPING POPULAR

Profiting by Practice of Thanksgiving Week, Housewives Order Early.

Last Thanksgiving the big bulk of shopping was done several days before the day of roasting and housewives and merchants generally were so pleased over the arrangement that it is believed the same practice will be followed this week. Brisk business was noted in grocery stores today, where the demand for nuts and other staples that can as well be purchased in advance, was unusually keen.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

Those who are afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation should read the following: "I have never found anything so good for stomach trouble and constipation as Chamberlain's Tablets. I have used them off and on now for the past two years. They not only regulate the action of the bowels but stimulate the liver and keep one's body in a healthy condition," writes Mrs. Benjamin Hooper, Auburn, N. Y.
